89TH ANNUAL BIBLE LECTURESHIP

PROMISE & PROVIDENCE: A FAITH JOURNEY THROUGH GENESIS

From the dawn of creation to the paths walked by faith's champions, God's promises shine through every moment. Join us as we explore His provision in both trials and triumphs, urging us to place our trust in His unwavering faithfulness.

LECTURESHIP BOOKS

We know good study books for personal or congregational Bible study can be difficult to come by, so we are excited about the production of two Bible study books in 2025. The first book will feature chapters written by 14 men for a general audience, while the other book titled "Women Walking in Faith" was written by 13 women and is especially for women's Bible study. The books will be available in print, Kindle and PDF formats. The books may be purchased for $15 each through Amazon or at Lectureship. In addition, recordings of all the 2025 lectures will be available through the registration process and in person during the lectures.

MSYC FUNDRAISING DINNER

Mid-South Youth Camp will host a dinner Wednesday, March 19, from 4:30-6:30 p.m. in the Jones Family Dining Hall. Come see MSYC friends and celebrate the recent improvements made at MSYC, while supporting a great cause! Tickets prices are $20 for adults, $10 for youth ages 6-11 and free for children 5 and under. Tickets may be purchased during registration or at the door.

KIDS LECTURESHIP

The Kids Lectureship will provide childcare Monday through Wednesday 8:15-11 a.m. and 12:15-3:30 p.m. and Thursday 8:15-11 a.m. (no session after lunch on Thursday), in the Henderson Church of Christ Activity Center. This program will be staffed by members of the FHU College of Education and Behavioral Sciences and the Learning Resource Library. There will be individual and group play, toys, books, games and study opportunities for toddlers through fifth graders. A nursery is available for young children. Each day at 10:00 a.m., there will be a Bible lesson highlighting stories that align with the overall lectureship theme. At 1:30 p.m., there will be a story time with crafts and activities. Kids Lectureship provides snacks, crafts and other activities for your children. These are provided at no cost, but donations are welcome.

Those interested in having children attend may register online at fhu.edu/lectureship/register. For additional information, contact Ashley Estes (aestes@fhu.edu) or Jennifer Creecy (jcreecy@fhu.edu). We ask that you Pre-register ALL CHILDREN who will attend by February 28. This helps us ensure we have enough supplies and support staff to care for your children to the best of our ability.

STUDY CARDS

For the first time, we're offering a set of 15 beautifully designed cards that walk through the stories of Genesis! Perfect for Bible classes, family devotionals or personal study, these cards bring Scripture to life in a fun and interactive way. The sets will be $10, and all proceeds will support Kids Lectureship.

DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING

Lectureship guests who are hearing impaired may request signing services when they register. A designated area at the front of Dryden Auditorium during keynote sessions and Open Forum is reserved for those who desire signing services. Thanks to Ryan Smallwood, coordinator of the National Deaf Workshop, for helping to coordinate this service. For more information, individuals may contact him at rahmsmallwood@gmail.com.

EXHIBITS

Exhibits will be located in the Main Arena of Brewer Sports Center. Exhibits will close at 7 p.m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and 1 p.m. on Thursday.

OPEN FORUM 2025

Open Forum is a time to study the Bible and promote critical thinking about biblical and contemporary issues of interest to God's people. The 2025 Forum will be moderated by Dr. Doug Burleson each day and will feature Dr. James Gardner and Kyle Butt as panelists with an additional guest panelist each day. Questions can be pre-submitted through the Freed-Hardeman Lectureship website (fhu.edu/lectureship), emailed to openforum@fhu.edu, tweeted using #fhuopenforum, handed to a panelist or submitted through the Facebook group, FHU Open Forum 2025.

ESPECIALLY FOR STUDENTS

The Lectureship has always sought to be relevant to the students at FHU. In many ways students are involved in preparing for and hosting the lectures by volunteering in a number of capacities. Students are required to attend daily chapel services at 10:30 a.m., which includes Caleb Hammond, a student speaker, on Tuesday. Students assist with the Teen Lectureship and also help to orchestrate the Kids Lectureship. All Bible classes are dismissed during Lectureship week and teachers in other disciplines of the university have the option of dismissing their classes as well. We appreciate all of the students who help to accommodate lectureship guests and help to make the Annual Bible Lectureship a special event every year.

ASSOCIATES' KITCHEN AND F.H. BREW

The Associates' Lectureship Kitchen will be open from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in Brewer Sports Center Auxiliary Gym. Guests will be offered delicious, hot meals and sandwiches each day, Monday through Thursday.

The Associates' Coffee Shop — Beloved F.H. Brew — will be open in Brewer Sports Center Lobby from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Attendees can take a break and enjoy a warm welcome, along with gourmet coffee, tea, hot chocolate, hot caramel apple cider, breakfast pastries and savories, desserts and snacks. The coffee shop also features FHU's favorite coffees: Bell Tower Brew, The Lion Sleeps Tonight and Three Swings and a Ring.

All proceeds will benefit FHU students through scholarships.

WHAT'S NEW AT THE 2025 LECTURESHIP?

There are elements of the Lectureship that are favorites from year to year, but this year there are several new aspects of the program that we hope will be among your favorites this year.

1. A Balanced Focus on the Text of Genesis — It would be easy to plan a Lectureship on just the first twelve chapters of Genesis, but we want to give attention to the text and theology of the whole book. The Lectureship has been designed to address questions related to the Nature of God (1:30 p.m., Mon.-Thurs., Aud A; 2:30 p.m., Mon-Thurs, Dryden Main Floor), the Nature of Humankind (8:30 a.m., Tues.-Thurs., Aud D), the Archaeology of Genesis (8:30 a.m., Tues.-Thurs., Aud B), and Key Characters (including a three-day series on Joseph led by Dan Winkler and 27 sessions related to characters highlighted in our two 2025 Lectureship books). In addition to the chapel sessions and keynotes, other sessions specifically connected to Genesis include a survey of the whole book (Mon., 8:30-10:20 a.m., Dryden Main Floor).
2. Expanded College Ministry and Youth and Family Ministry Workshops — On Monday, March 17, a one-day Youth and Family Workshop, hosted by Ben Coleman, will feature 19 sessions and almost 30 speakers or panelists who desire to help attendees grow in ministering to children, families and youth. Also on Wednesday, March 19, the Lectureship will feature a "College Ministry Workshop," led by Dr. Matt Sokoloski, which will help attendees grow in their ability to reach and serve college students in a variety of contexts. The four sessions begin at 8:30 a.m., 9:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. and feature speakers and panelists including Scott Jefcoat, Andrew Kingsley and Boo Scott.
3. Strengthening the Family — The role of family in Genesis and the pressing need for helpful family ministries has led to an effort to emphasize healthy marriages and families in the 2025 program. On Tuesday-Thursday mornings at 9:30 the series on the main floor of Dryden will address how families can address the challenges of favoritism, sexual immorality and unhealthy conflict in the home. Also, a series of lessons on Monday-Thursday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. in Butts Family Conference Room hosted by Dr. Ryan Fraser will serve to strengthen marriages, while also encouraging those struggling with infertility or other family communication challenges.
4. Apologetics Emphasis — Christians and congregations are constantly being challenged with how to engage the sciences and even skeptics, and the 2025 Lectureship has been designed with some of those challenges in mind. David Tarbet will lead a series in the ARC, near the Bible collection he donated to FHU, over four days titled "How We Got the Bible" (Mon.-Thurs., 11:30 a.m.). Another series will address how to build a healthy model of creation, especially as related to the questions those in the sciences might bring to the text of Scripture (Mon.-Thurs., 12:30 p.m., Aud C), while there will also be a series on sexual ethics from Genesis (Mon.-Thurs., 12:30 p.m., Aud B).

We have prayerfully prepared every session and series in the 2025 Lectureship with hopes that God will be glorified and attendees will grow in faith. We hope you will take advantage of each of these opportunities.

When life does not turn out like we expect it to, especially because of loss or grief, we have to pass through the four tasks of mourning. This process begins by considering the power of God and the power of God then is truly understood when we realize that God can take even bad things, things He has not initiated, and force them into compliance so that they are useful for his people.	Lonnie Jones	Dryden Auditorium 08

APPRECIATION DINNER TO HONOR ROY & JAN SHARP

The 2025 FHU Annual Bible Lectureship is dedicated to Roy and Jan Sharp. It is difficult to imagine two people who could have poured more of themselves into FHU or who have more tirelessly served in the kingdom of God. They are loved by generations of Christians and their influence is felt across the country and around the world. Though Jan went to her reward on October 22, 2024, Roy and Jan are worthy of honor because of the work they have done and impact they made together.

Roy and Jan met at FHC and married in 1966. They had a faithful and loving relationship for more than 58 years. They had three children: Meg, John and Rachel, and they were blessed with five grandchildren: Cyrus, Cora, Chelsea, Kai and Florine. Both Roy and Jan graduated from FHC, Jan in 1967 and Roy, who stayed for the third year Bible certificate, in 1968. Shortly after graduation from FHC, Roy began working for the college as a coach. He later served as the dean of students from 1980 to 1984 and as the VP of student services from 1985 to 1990. After that, he joined the Bible faculty full-time, serving in that capacity until his retirement in 2018. Jan also served the college, most notably as a librarian in the Lawhorn Library, with responsibility for the library's audiovisual holdings. She was also a long-time member of the FHU Associates, and she took great pleasure in feeding everyone from students to Christian friends to strangers. Roy, or "Coach," as he is affectionately known by many, served as director of Mid-South Youth Camp for many years. He and Jan were also very active in mission work, particularly in Haiti. Roy has made numerous trips to Haiti to conduct evangelistic and medical mission campaigns. Meanwhile Jan was tireless in her support role, helping to prepare shipping containers with relief supplies and maintaining relationships with brothers and sisters in Haiti. No one outworked Jan Sharp!

Perhaps the most notable role that Roy has played is "preacher." He has preached for more than 50 years at congregations across the country, preaching long-term for churches in Memphis, Henderson and Linden. In addition, he has preached hundreds of gospel meetings in churches far and near and conducted marriage and family workshops at many more.

Roy and Jan Sharp have been exemplary servants of God. They are faithful friends, tireless workers in the church and passionate about the mission of God. It is our pleasure to dedicate the 2025 FHU Lectureship to this wonderful couple.

The Appreciation Dinner will be Tuesday, March 18, in Brewer Sports Center's Auxiliary Gym. Tickets are $20 and may be purchased in advance by calling Christy Hardin (731-989-6956) in the FHU Business Office or by purchasing online at fhu.edu/lectureship.

Not once (Gen. 16:5-6), but twice (Gen. 21:9-10). She and her son, Ishmael, were subsequently alienated from God's people, destined to wander, perhaps even die. But God had different plans for this slave woman and her son. They may have lost the supplies, status, and security of Abraham's clan, but God would restore what they lost and then some.	Jacob Evans	Dryden Auditorium	76

JOIN US MAY 27-30, FOR THE EQUIP MINISTRY CAMP!

You're invited to apply for the second annual Equip Ministry Camp, hosted by the College of Biblical Studies at Freed-Hardeman University. The camp will take place from Tuesday, May 27, through Friday, May 30, and is open to young men aged 13-19. The mission of the camp is to provide a learning environment for you to study the Word of God, prepare and present lessons, and enhance your ability to minister in a congregational setting. The camp, limited to 48 applicants, will include time with mentors, collaborative preparation for ministry and relationship-building activities. Upon approval, the camp fee for each student is $150. For more information, contact Doug Burleson, Director of Equip Ministry Camp, at dburleson@fhu.edu.

CAMPUS MAP

AREA ACCOMODATIONS

FHU AND MSYC

FREED-HARDEMAN UNIVERSITY

University on-campus housing may be available in some of the residence halls. These accommodations are VERY LIMITED with our current student enrollment. Men will be housed in men's housing and women in women's housing. Cost is $25 per night for a single room or $15 per night for a shared room. If you are staying in our university on-campus housing, you will need to provide your own linens (mattresses are extra long), towels and toiletries. For further information, please contact Lieh Brumback at 731-989-6176 or nbrumback@fhu.edu.

All those staying must abide by all university policies. Once you are given a housing assignment within the dorm, a background check will be required before your reservation is confirmed.

RV spaces are available in limited supply, and on a first-come, first served basis. Cost is $20/ night; water and electric hook-up available. Spaces are available for RVs, not campers with slide-outs on the side. No power cables or hoses are provided by FHU—bring extra of both as some spaces are 100+ feet from service hook-ups. Spaces cannot be held after the first day of Lectureship. Call FHU Facilities at 731-989-6413 for reservations. Payment can be made at the FHU Financial Services Building (behind Brewer Sports Center).

MID-SOUTH YOUTH CAMP

Cost is $20 per person per night (cabins will be male only or female only) or an entire cabin can be reserved for a family for $100 per night. All those staying must abide by the camp rules and regulations. If you are staying at MSYC, you will need to provide your own linens, towels, etc. To make a reservation email Courtney Insell (cinsell@fhu.edu) the following information: Name (individuals or family), number in party, nights of accomodation (March 16, 17, 18, 29, 20, 21) and cell phone number.
