FHC'ers Debate At Student Council Leaders

At Tournament Will Be Chosen May 11

In Miami, Florida

Jack Meldin, a member of the FHC Debate Society received the award of Excellence in extemporaneous speaking when the squad recently took part in the Miami, Florida, Southern Speech Association Forensic Tournament and Student Congress.

Those entering debate and individual events were sophomores Jack Medlin and Dennis Bailey and freshman Tom Heinselman and Ed Craighead.

Members of the student congress entered as members of the Liberal or Conservative parties. Dennis Bailey presented a bill for passage in the congressional session much like the federal congress.

Side trips were taken by the squad to the campuses of the Universities of Miami, South Florida, and Alabama. They also toured Florida Christian College.

According to Professor David Thomas, sponsor to the group, the top three schools of the tournament were the University of South Carolina, Mercer University, and Wake Forest College.

Concerning the performance of the squad, Mr. Thomas said, "The debaters while meeting stiff competition, represented the school well and were complemented by several of the coaches who judged them."

The tournament was directed by Dr. Merrill Christopher from the University of South Carolina.

West Tennessee Phi Beta Lambdas Plan Meeting

Phi Beta Lambda is planning a joint meeting of all chapters

The annual student council election will be held May 11 to select the president and secretary for 1961-62.

The Sky Rocket will announce the student body's selection shortly after the election which will be held in chapel hall.

This is one of the big elections of the year because these leaders will be representing the student body in various ways during the coming year. They will be expected to serve as a link between the student body and the faculty. These officers will be expected to speak on various occasions throughout the year and will be planning student recreation with the student affairs committee.

The election details will be planned and administered by the present student council headed by Jimmy Miller and Sue Harvick.

President Jimmy Miller admonishes all students to think seriously about this election before it arrives. He says that there has been a tremendous amount of work and responsibility in these positions this year and that the 1961-62 council, with an expected larger student body, will have even more to do.

in West Tennessee April 25.

The program will begin with a general assembly at 7 o'clock. Recognition of sponsors and officers, a welcome by James Willis, President; welcome by FHC's President Dixon; speeches by local chapter representatives to the state convention, refreshments, college sextet and quartet and speeches by Mrs. Don Coleman and Mr. Walker Whittle will follow in that order. Mrs. Coleman's subject will be "Why FBLA in the High School." Mr. Whittle will talk on "Why Phi Beta Lambda in the college."

This is the first such joint meeting of all West Tennessee chapters.

A. C. Dunkleberger, Nashville Banner Editor, Speaks Tonight

Mr. A. C. Dunkleberger, editor of the Nashville Banner, Nashville, Tennessee, will present a lecture here tonight, April 17. His lecture on his recent trip to Russia will be presented at 7:30 p.m. in the College Auditorium. The public is cordially invited to this program.

Vernice Jarrett Is Candidate For State Office

Vernice Jarrett, a freshman economics major, is a candidate for second vice-president of the Tennessee Home Economics Association College Club Section for 1961-62. The election of state officers will take place in Memphis at the state convention of the THEA, April 14-16.

Janice Patrick, a sophomore, is now serving as state treasurer of the state organization and will be on the program at the convention at the Hotel Peabody in Memphis. Janice was elected at the meeting in Chattanooga last April. Shirley Hoopengartner, Gayle Mann, Judy Collier, Jeanette Williams, and Sandra McDonald plan to attend the convention with Janice Veruice and Miss Tucker.

Mr. Dunkleberger is in his 27th year with the Nashville Banner. Prior to joining the Banner staff he was editor of the Johnson City News and Sunday editor of the Knoxville Journal. He has had wide experience in the newspaper field and has traveled extensively, supplementing his familiarity with world affairs by making personal visits to world capitals. As chief editorialist, he has distinguished himself by acquiring a detailed knowledge of local, state, national and world politics. He is in constant demand as a speaker.

In 1950 he and a select group of newspaper men toured England, Germany, France and Italy. Subsequently he made two trips to South America, Guatemala and Cuba in 1954 and 1956.

Phi Theta Kappas Add New Members

The Kappa Upsilon chapter of Phi Theta Kappa had its Spring initiation ceremony and a dinner March 14, at the Skylark Restaurant in Henderson.

The initiation was presided over by Hope Barnett, president. She was assisted by Sam Miao, vice-president, and Freeda Arnett, secretary.

There were nine old members present for the evening of fellowship. Sponsor E. Claude Gardner and Mrs. Gardner were guests for the ceremony.

The eighteen new members who were initiated are; James Lowie, Alberta, Canada; Tom Hinselmann, Little Hocking, Ohio; Ethelwyn Dobbs, Haleyville, Alabama; Betty Wisdom, Hohenwald, Tennessee; Donno

Kaye Brackeen, Athens, Alabama; Nancy White, Bells Tennessee; Jim Bailey, Glen Rock, Pennsylvania; Johnny Malone, Henderson, Tennessee; Doris Vinson, Athens, Alabama; Rose Nicholson, Bardwell, Kentucky; Jane Roberts, Rives, Tennessee; Helen White, Lake, Mississippi; Glenda Johnston, Grand Bay, Alabama; John Cunningham, Chattanooga, Tennessee; Ed Craighead, Shelbyville, Tennessee; Marilyn Karnes, Kevil, Kentucky; Dan Dotson, Ada, Ohio; and Martha Moore, Florence, Alabama.

National charters and membership cards have been issued to the new members and keys have been ordered.

SNEA Holds Banquet

The theme of the SNEA banquet held in the student center April 11, was "April Showers."

After the meal had been completed, "The Offbeats" composed of Faye Mays, Norma Lee, and Marilyn Karnes, entertained with several songs.

Candidates for next year's offices were introduced with their campaign managers. Presidential candidates are Jim Bailey, Nancy White, and David Massey, for vice-president, Marilyn Karnes, Jo Connell, and Roger Fisher; for secretary: Carolyn Keith and Annette Clegg.

Phi Theta Kappas welcome new members with a candlelight installation.

FROM THE LAUNCHING PAD

Seeking The Lost

by Jimmy Miller

We often sing these words:

"Seeking the lost and pointing to Jesus,
Souls that are weak and hearts that are sore;
Leading them forth in ways of salvation,
Showing the path to life evermore.

As we sing these words in the spirit and understanding what we sing, we have set our lives to a great purpose. We put ourselves into a position to do a great work of evangelism for the Lord.

How many Christians attended public schools with hundreds of non-Christians—yet never mentioned the Bible to them. It may be that those people have not heard of the Gospel plan of salvation until this day. It will not be long until we return home, and then what will we do about those we failed to teach. You may be the only one who could ever teach some particular person. What do we do when we think of Jesus' command, "Go ye therefore and teach all nations?"

"When in a better land before the bar we stand,
How deeply grieved our souls may be;
If some poor lost one there should cry in deep despair;
You never mentioned Him to me!

What The Church Means To Me

(The article below was written by Charlotte Franklin of Parkersburg, West Virginia. She will be enrolled in September, 1961, as a freshman in Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson, Tennessee. E. Claude Gardner, Dean-Registrar, Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson, Tennessee.)

The church of Christ means a lot to me and I am glad that I am a part of it. I have tried to list the different things it means to me in the next few lines.

First, the church seems like a big happy family working together to help each other. In our homes today we try to help the other members of our family when they need us. That is the way we are supposed to help our brothers and sisters in Christ, but much too often we forget.

Funny as it may seem, the church work can be compared to a hobby. True Christians work for the church every minute they possibly can just as people do hobbies. Hobbies sometimes turn into a life work, just as the church should always.

The church is like a diamond or precious jewel. Just as a jewel is kept free of dust or dirt, the church must be kept pure from the world.

Like a plan for peace, the church must be spread everywhere so that all may have a chance to become a part of it. A peace plan is never accepted everywhere; neither will the church be, but we must take it with us wherever we go so that if there is not a congregation where we settle, we can start one.

Our souls, walking down the pathway of life to heaven, through the church, is like someone walking on a rough path through the woods which suddenly comes upon a beautiful land. If we use the Bible as our guide and the church as our way, we will some day find ourselves in a beautiful land called heaven.

The church is an encourager for a Christian who has become discouraged. He will find brothers and sisters in Christ ready to help him, he has the Bible to turn to for comfort, and work to do to get his mind off his troubles.

And last, the church is a shelter from the world and its cares. Its doors are open wide for every man that will seek it. All that find it have found the way to heaven.

EVANGELISTIC FORUM

Gary Williams lectured to the Forum, Wednesday, Mar. 15, on the "Values and Methods of Personal Work."

The Forum did not meet Mar. 22, due to most of the students leaving for spring holidays.

On Mar. 29, Mr. Thurman Brewer of Franklin, Tennessee, presented an illustrated lecture on the missionary journeys of the apostle Paul. Mr. Brewer worked two years as a missionary in Germany. He plans to enter the mountain areas of east Tennessee this summer to begin a new mission effort.

Mr. Charles Moore from Sicily spoke Thursday at chapel on the success of the work in that country. He is returning this coming July to resume his work there.

Mr. Olan Hicks, the faculty, and Mr. L. E. Cranford of Nashville will speak in the near future.

DEBATE CLUB

The Cole-Sammons debate on Orphan Homes enjoyed a fair audience. It was profitable to all.

Debates scheduled for the near future are the Judd-Grotts debate on church music (April 13), and the Cole-Bulter debate on the God-head question. No date has been set for this discussion.

Officers elected for this part of the semester are Dexter Sammons for president and Richard Judd, vice-president.

PREACHERS CLUB

The officers for the last half of the semester are Bill Friley, president; Dowl Flatt, vice-president, and Bill Boley, sergeant-in-arms.

Mr. Flavil Nichols spoke to the club the night of March 13. Several preacher students bought "Speaking The Truth in Love," by Gus Nichols, and Mr. Nichols gave them a copy of the 1959 Lubbock Christian College lectures with the above mentioned book.

Wordsworth said that "poetry is the spontaneous overflow of powerful emotions." I don't know about the emotion but the following little ditty certainly has a powerful moral.

"Elbow in
Don't wait in line.
Push ahead;
Ignore the sign.
You'll be hated,
You'll be cursed,
You will be also
Be served first."

The other night my often slammed and seldom praised suitemate had a tremendous urge to write poetry. To be more truthful, she was gently shoved into it. You'd never believe that behind her innocent face there lurks the mind of a poetical genius. Take the following: as proof:

Upon Being Trampled While Marching-To-The-Mailbox
"Ouch my foot, watch the arm!"

You hear the woeful wail.
But wait-I see it-there's my box!

A-las! again-No Mail.
Ode To A Three-Page Theme
Through rain or shine,
Sleet or snow
To the Brumley class
I must go.

Yes, I know my leg is broken.
Yes, I know my fever is high
But I must ever be onward-

Youth Camp Is July 9-22

The date of the FHC youth camp held at Lake LaJole in Chickasaw Park has been set for July 9-22.

The camp is conducted in two sessions, the first week being 9-15, and the second 16-22. Ages between 10 and 18 are invited to attend.

An excellent corps of teachers and counselors will be working under the direction of Ben Zickefoose, Jr., Camp Director. The staff will include a registered nurse, dietitian, lifeguards, musical and athletic directors, Bible teachers, and other necessary personnel to provide safe, healthful conditions and worthwhile activities.

This camp is a place where recreation, wholesome association, and soul strengthening teaching go hand in hand. Early morning and evening devotions are held beside the beautiful lake, creating an inspirational and beautiful scene. There will be hikes, cabin devotions, work details, craft classes, chapel, Bible, music classes, mission study, campfire programs, and watermelon cuttings.

There will be special speakers on Monday, Wednesday, Friday. A memory work test will be held on Friday.

The recreation program has something planned for everyone. Ping pong, trampolines, archery, badminton, softball, horses shoes, and others will be played in tournament style.

Applications for this week or two weeks of delightful camp life should be sent to Ben H. Zickefoose, Jr., Camp Director, Freed-Hardeman College Youth Camp, Henderson, Tennessee.

"To The Brumley Class!" is my cry.

What? You aren't convinced? Well, nevermind, just congratulate Carole Broderick on her first publication.

After all the verse (or worse) we'll carry on our usual slamming business. Joe Williams says that he never gets his name in the paper. When told that he never did anything, he replied, "But I try hard." He didn't mention exactly what he tried.

There must be a lot of things that ex-Dean-of-students Witt can't do or figure out.

The last Philo program was lacking something. I tried valiantly, but in vain, to get to be "third". Remember the part, "And Flynn ahugging third."

Here's a newsworthy item: Chorus members sang "Happy Consequences to You" to Norma Harper and Jimmy Miller because they were holding hands.

Is Mr. Hall really moving his office so he can keep a closer watch on things.

FHC's Favorite Couple

In the Who's Who election Martha Moore and Dick Harrison were selected as the favorite couple on campus.

Martha is a freshman from Florence, Alabama. She attended Mars Hill High School, where she received many honors. Among these were "Miss Mars Hill", Annual Editor, and Salutatorian. At FHC also, Martha holds several honors. She is Sigma Rho Sweetheart, class secretary, and a member of Phi Theta Kappa. Her major is liberal arts.

Dick, also from Florence, Alabama is a Sophomore. Both this year and last he has been outstanding in intramural and varsity sports. This year he is a member of the varsity tennis team, and has received several honors in badminton.

Dick also graduated from Mars Hill High School, where he was class president, best all-around, co-captain of the basketball team, and representative to Boys State during his senior year.

This year, Dick is majoring in Business and is a member of Phi Beta Lambda.

Their charming personalities and example of wholesome Christian conduct, prompted the student body to select them as FHC's favorite couple.

Some pictorial gems gleaned from a year's association with Olan L. Hicks:

"My father has warped my personality many times. He has patted my back-both high and low-and I'll guarantee you the low ones did more good."

"Humor is to life what shock absorbers are to a car."

"You can't put an old man's head on a young man's shoulders."

Third Year Program

1. For a quarter of a century or more a number of young men have stayed for a third year to study Bible. Beginning in 1953 some courses were set up in the college catalog with a 300 number.

2. The third year program in Bible:

a. Offers a concentrated study in Bible for those who have received a good background for the first two years.

b. It provides a balanced program of preparation for those who must terminate their work temporarily or permanently in order to preach.

c. It has in it the elements essential to helping a preacher to be effective.

3. Freed-Hardeman College has long been known for its strong Bible Department. Students who pursue this work have the opportunity pursuing this advanced work under some of our most capable and experienced Bible teachers. These teachers have had many years experience in preaching, debating, writing, and lecturing.

4. Pursue the recommended program in the catalog. Take as many of the 300 courses as possible. Do not take these courses in the sophomore year. Those who plan to work toward a degree may choose to submit a transcript at the end of two years and a proposed course of study to a senior Christian college for evaluation and suggestions. Strive to make grades of C or above.

5. Any comment or suggestion you have after completing the third year work or after you have transferred will be appreciated. We shall strive to continue to improve the program.

This is the whole truth about that group of smugglers that we often hear referred to as girls--with a capital G. The capital is what the boy has to furnish when he goes on an expensive excursion with one of these female necessities. But back to the smuggling part. Perhaps some of you are wondering when they are called smugglers. Well, boys if you could see what some of them put off on you under a covering of bobby-pins, paint, and powder you would know why they are called smugglers.

Debate Team Wins Trophy

Elmer Howell and Jerry Fulkerson, Wendell Gann and Royce Dickerson were the two teams who brought the first place Junior division trophy from the Magnolia Tournament at Mississippi State College for Women.

These teams won ten rounds of debate each while losing none. They were in competition with teams from such schools as the University of Alabama, Louisiana State University and Vanderbilt University who won the Tennessee Junior Division Championship.

This was the last tournament in which Elmer Howell, Jerry Fulkerson, and Wendell Gann will be able to represent FHC.

Varsity Tennis And Baseball Season Launched

Players Of The Week

Joe Burleson from Bernie, Missouri, was an outstanding hustler for the Lions during basketball season. He has proven that it does not take a tall boy to be a good player. He brought down his share of rebounds and was a valuable asset in the defensive department.

Since baseball season started he has shown his versatility by playing center field for the Lions.

Everett Balentine, Florence, Alabama, was another "unsung" member of the Lions basketball team. As spring approaches he will try his hand at baseball. Ev is one of the pitchers for this year's team. In the Bethel game he took over in the third and allowed only one run in the remaining innings.

Kenny Spillman, from Paragould, Arkansas, who has been playing all kinds of sports for the Phi Kappas, is playing on the varsity basketball team. Kenny has been doing a great job at second base during practice and the first few games.

MISSFIRES -

Johnny Malone hasn't learned the practical French yet. He didn't know that Pat was asking if he liked a blond.

At the SNEA banquet, Cliff Bennett was in Nancy's corner one hundred percent.

Jim Bailey is the only SNEA candidate with two campaign managers—both girls. We know it doesn't take Gena and Nancy both to talk enough.

Gerald Clark has some hidden features—they only show up in pictures.

Charlott Bolton's new hobby is taking baths with her clothes on. She has some rather persuasive spectators though.

Norma Underwood and June Hamby are now booking modeling shows. Call them at 2500 Hall-Roland. There is only one catch—they only model white peddle pushers.

Sherra Martin had a party at her home last weekend. She took second floor of Hall-Roland and with her.

Ed Craighead wants everyone to know he doesn't have a bottle tan. It's a bonafied Florida job.

If any SNEA members find a class ring in the chicken salad served at the banquet last Tuesday, it belongs to Janice Bryan.

Gerald Clark has it bad. He went to the store for pop corn oil, and after pouring it in his popper, discovered he had bought a bottle of Pur-EX.

After sitting in an empty classroom 15 minutes after the last bell, Bill Voss decided his Bible class wasn't going to meet.

When you get thirsty in speech class just ask Pat Gross what to do.

Tennis Team Has First Match

The tennis season at Freed-Hardeman is now under way with very much enthusiasm. The competition for the first six positions on the team is really great. This competition will continue through out the season.

Baseball Team Is Organized

The baseball team is finally getting off to a good start after being hampered by bad weather. Coach Stewart believes the hard work of the team will pay off. The boys have showed great interest in the practice sessions.

The players and their positions are: Tom Morris and Bobby Glover, third base; Terry Burton, short-stop; James Willis and Kenny Spillman, second base; John Forgy and Wilton Martin, first base; Larry Jaynes and Jim Palmer, catcher; Sonny Santucci, left field; Joe Burleson and James Parker, center field; Jim Vickers and Aaron Harrison, right field; Everett Balentine, Benny Horton, Wilton Martin, and John Gary Williams, pitchers.

Coach Witt is doing a good job of getting the team into shape. He is looking forward to a good record to match the record of last year's team.

At the time of this writing, the first six players in order are Harold Neil, F. T. Patton, Jack Williams, Duane Law, Don Freeman, and Pat Murdock. In all probability, these positions will change from time to time during the season.

Owing to the competition of positions, the team dropped its first match to Lambuth at Jackson, April 6, by the score of 7-2. The number one man, Harold Neil, won his singles matches, and Harold and F. T. Patton won a doubles match.
