FREEDHARDEMAN COLLEGE, HENDERSON, TENNESSEE,

DECEMBER 11, 1956.

NUMBER 3

F-H C Accredited By Southern Association

Celebration broke out all over the campus of Freed-Hardeman College when a call was received from President Dixon in Dallas, shortly before three o'clock Thursday, December 6, stating that the college had been admitted to the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

A prolonged sounding of the college bell summoned all faculty and students to assembly where full announcements of the successful accreditation were made and plans laid for a parade of the city.

Speeches of congratulation and rejoicing were made by Walter Fennel, president of the Student Council, and by members of the faculty and administration.

A special reception was conducted for Dixon and Gardner when they arrived from Dallas.

It added up to this:

Freed-Hardeman College is a fully accredited member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools! This statement was made public when President H. A. Dixon called Vice-President C. P. Roland from Dallas, Texas, at the annual meeting of the association December 6.

"This is the most wonderful news ever received at Freed-Hardeman. This is indeed the culmination of dreams by many for years and it is in one sense also the end of a long, hard trail," commented W. A. Bradfield, Promotional Director of the college.

Plans for accreditation were first started in 1939 when conferences were held with a junior college committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. However, war conditions presented new problems and the application was never considered.

When H. A. Dixon became president in 1950, the administration and faculty began to talk of accreditation.

Dean-Registrar E. Claude Gardner made a special study of accreditation in the summer of 1951 and in 1952 a faculty committee was selected to study the standards.

In 1953, the Tennessee State Board of Education started a series of conferences to improve teacher education in the state and to change the basis of certification. Freed-Hardeman, which already had the State Board approval, developed a new teacher education program which was approved in 1955.

In December of 1954, President Dixon and Dean Gardner attended a meeting in Louisville, Kentucky, making personal contact with the officials and extending a request to the Executive Secretary to visit the campus.

Dr. Donald C. Agnew visited the college, reviewed the program and permitted the college to file its first report in October. He also arranged an appointment with the Commission in December.

In April, 1956, the official committee of the association visited the campus and gave further recommendations. On December 6, 1956, the committee made known that Freed-Hardeman is now a fully accredited member of the association.

"It is an invigorating experience to have a part in working toward accreditation. The institution takes on new life and is consequently in better position to serve its youth. It is the unanimous opinion of the F.H.C. administration that all of the requirements of the standards for approval are good for the sound development of the school," stated Dean Gardner.

O. Miller Gives First Speech Of Homecoming Day

"The Church is Growing" was the subject of the principal speech Wednesday night, November 21, by Orlan Miller to open the activities of the Homecoming.

Brother Miller first showed by passages of scripture how the early Church grew. Then he pointed out that the Church has grown from 192,000 members in 1860 to 1,600,000 in 1955.

"There are about 15,000 congregations. However 6,000 of these are in six states: Texas, Tennessee, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Alabama and Missouri. 104 congregations are found in the greater Nashville area and 712 congregations within 100 miles of Nashville," Miller stated.

The work in the north and northeast has about 77,000 members with about 1,300 congregations, Miller emphasized.

Outside the continental U. S. there are only 92 missionaries working in 20 nations out of the 120 nations recognized by the U. S. Miller showed emphasizing the need for more workers and support in the foreign fields. The speech was concluded

Judge Addresses Chapel Assembly

Judge Koichi Inomata, judge of the Higher Court in Tokyo, Japan, spoke at the chapel assembly of Freed-Hardeman, Friday, November 30.

Judge Inomata is one of the leaders in the Yoyogi-Hachiman Church where President H. A. Dixon recently conducted the Far East Fellowship meeting.

Born of Buddhist parents, Inomata was baptized in 1947 by E. A. Rhodes, a church of Christ missionary in Japan.

In his speech the judge said the emperor had stepped down from his mysterious position as a living God and now there are no restrictions on preaching the Gospel in Japan.

He is in this country officially to review some laws of the American government but he is also studying the work of the church here.

Overton Spoke To Chapel Assembly

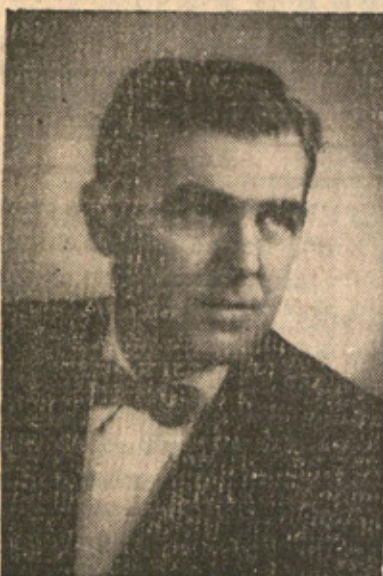

Robert Overton, elder of the Church of Christ in Sharon, Tennessee spoke to the student body at chapel exercises Monday, November 26.

His subject was "Christianity in Business. In his speech he stressed the importance of Christianity in youth because it is the spring time of life and more temptations are present.

Overton was introduced by Dean Gardner who preached at the Sharon church.

with the following statements: "May we dedicate our heart tonight to the task of sending forth the gospel. May all men learn of the Saviour's love, from the equator to the poles."

21ST ANNUAL LECTURES PLANNED FOR JANUARY 13-17 TO ATTRACT PEOPLE FROM ALL PARTS OF U.S.

D. Ellis Walker

Paul M. Tucker

The annual Bible Lectureship Program of Freed-Hardeman College is scheduled for January 13-17. The theme of this lectureship is "The Great Commission."

Hundreds of people from all over the United States are expected to attend the lectureship to hear speeches made by some of the best-known preachers in the brotherhood stated the promotional director of the college.

The opening speech will be made Sunday night, January 13, by Judge Sam Davis Tatum of Nashville, Tennessee.

The day sessions will be conducted each morning at 8:25 beginning Monday, January 14. Beginning speaker for the day sessions will be Pat Hardeman of Tampa, Florida speaking on "Modernism and the Great Commission."

The theme for the chapel speakers is "Christian Education". Speakers for these exercises are Charles Cobb of Nashville, J. F. Camp of East Gadsden, Alabama, A. E. Emmons, Jr., of Mayfield, Ky., and Marshal Keeble of Nashville.

Night services will be held in the church of Christ building in Henderson at 7:00. In addition to the speeches there will also be periods of Gospel singing and performances by the college quartet and Mens Glee Club.

Each day there will also be different panels speaking on subjects concerned with teaching the Gospel and taking it into all the world.

Dixon Speaks Of Japanese Work

President H. A. Dixon made two speeches Wednesday November 28 about his trip to Japan where he held a meeting for the Yoyogi-Hachiman Church of Christ in Tokyo.

The first speech was made to the chapel assembly of students and the second was made at night in the Henderson church building.

In the chapel address he talked chiefly concerning his trip and observations of the country. While speaking to the church congregation he spoke about the religious aspects of the country and his trip.

Dixon visited the Emperor's Imperial Gardens, Ibaraki Christian College, and Shinto and Buddhist places of worship.

He gave a summary of work of the church in Japan and an account of its growth.

"After my trip I have a fuller realization that people can be Christians anywhere in the world."

Judge: "You say this woman shot her husband with a pistol at close range."

Witness: "Yes sir."

Judge: "Any powder marks on the body?"

Witness: "Yes sir, that's why she shot him."

Sondra Herrington Is Crowned Queen Of Homecoming Activities At F-HC

Sondra Herrington was crowned queen of the 1956-57 Freed-Hardeman College homecoming on Thanksgiving Day in the Chester County High School gymnasium preceding the FHC David Lipscomb College basketball game.

Ann Tatum, retiring queen, was escorted by Kerry McClain. The attendants were June Howell, escorted by Gerald Lusk; Gail Williams, escorted by Billy Bowen; Sue Fritz, escorted by Jerry Moore and Arlene Carter escorted by Deming Harris.

The queen, Sondra Herrington, was escorted by Chuck Creasy.

Appeal For Fiction Books Brings Good Results; 200 Books

The appeal from the faculty in mid-November for used fiction books has been having a good response.

Approximately 200 books have been donated. The oldest book in this collection is KIDNAPPED by Robert L. Stevenson, 1751. Some dated as late as 1956 were also given.

The largest contribution was 33 books, made by Mrs. H. A. Dixon.

Promises of more books have been received.

Peanut Week Ends With Santa's Visit

From November 29 through December 6 was traditional "Peanut Week" on the Freed-Hardeman campus.

This annual affair under the direction of Lora Laycock, matron of the dormitories, has long been remembered as a highlight of the holiday season.

On Thursday night, November 29, all the girls from the three dormitories drew names to determine whose peanut they would be. Each day she left a small trinket in her peanut's room, taking care to remain unknown.

On Wednesday night, December 5, the mysteries were revealed with the big Christmas party and visit from Old St. Nick.

At the party a period of devotion was held, a program presented and gifts given out by Santa and his helpers.

"This has always been a goodwill week," stated Miss Lora, "and all the girls enjoy it so much. It would not seem like Christmas without it."

Mother: "Cyrus, Cyrus, don't use such bad words."

Cyrus: "Shakespeare uses them."

Mother: "Well, don't play with him anymore."

On December 12, most of the F.H.C. students will be starting their journey home with happy hearts. Behind some of them will be a "quarter well spent". As a result of their efforts they can show good grades and accomplishments. Others will not be as proud of their activities and successes. Going home perhaps they are planning to really live it up for a while. "I just can't wait until I get home so I can have some fun," stated one student. Grave consequences usually are the outcome of such statements. Don't you agree that you have just spent three of the most profitable and enjoyable months in your life? Let them remain as such. Don't mar your good record with the sowing of wild oats during vacation. You have started a fuller, better life so keep it that way until you return here.

LANGUAGE OF ASHDOD

By Alan Highers

"In those days also saw I the Jews that had married women of Ashdod, of Amon, and of Moab; and their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people" (Nehemiah 13:23-24). God did not approve this intermixture of His people with foreigners, nor the pollution of their language. They had contaminated the PURE SPEECH—tainted it with the "speech of Ashdod".

So it has been with many members of the church. While professing to "do Bible things in Bible ways, and call Bible things by Bible names," they have mixed PURE SPEECH with the "speech of Ashdod"—that is, they have adopted the TAINTED SPEECH of sectarianism! They speak HALF in the language of modern Babylon. What use has a Christian for the vocabulary originated by sinful denominationalism?

Yet it is not uncommon in this day to hear prominent (?) Christians refer to an evangelist as "the pastor". Some may even speak of becoming a Christian as "joining the church"! These are sorely in need of sound TEACHING. Such terminology emanates solely from sectarianism! It is not Bible language! We must not allow our current PROSPERITY in religion to lead us astray from "speaking as it were oracles of God". (I Pet. 4:11).

This hybrid speech indicates something far more serious than merely aping denominational jargon. It displays a misunderstanding of the NATURE of the church! And, since ideas are conveyed by words, we emit the wrong conception of WHAT THE CHURCH IS! Hence, it is no wonder that religious leaders look upon the church simply as "another denomination".

How To Improve Our Speech DO NOT SAY:

1. "Church of Christ preachers" It is much better to speak of them as "gospel preachers" or simply as "preachers of the word."
2. "The worship service". Since "worship" IS "service" it is redundant to speak of the "worship service".
3. "The local congregation" This is tantamount to talking

Training Class Met Nov. 12; Hears Panel Discussion

The Girls' Religious Training Class met November 12, for a panel discussion on visiting the sick.

Helen Carter led this discussion. Others on the panel were Jean Terry, Doris Brooks and Jane Clary.

Each girl, who knew of someone from their home town that was an invalid was requested to write the names and addresses of such people that all might be able to write them cheerful letters.

The next meeting of the Training Class was held November 19. The theme of this program was the relationship of stepchildren and step-parents. Mrs. Lon Hardeman, Sherry Huffstutter and Carolyn Bridges were the speakers.

The first meeting in December was held Monday night, December 3, at the Henderson Church building Miss Lora Laycock conducted a primary class demonstrating the methods of teaching younger children.

Most people do what they are requested to do, successful people a little more.

When you can get what you want when you want it, you don't want it about a "widow woman"! Did you ever see a "widow" who was not a "woman"? Or a "congregation" that was not "local"?

4. "Congregation of the Church of Christ." Since "congregation" and "church" may be used synonymously, it would be adequate to say "congregation of Christ" or "church of Christ".

5. "Church of Christ college". Schools such as Freed-Hardeman are not "church schools"—they are "private institutions". Any adjectival use of the phrase "Church of Christ" is highly questionable. Watch for it.

There are many other phrases besides these that should not be used. Why not have PURE SPEECH? Someone may say, "I cannot see that it makes any difference." If it does not make any difference, then say it correctly.

R. Jhin Relates Year's Travels

(Ed. Note — Kyo Ryoan Jhin of Kaesong, Korea, is a second year ministerial student at F.H.C. The following is his own account of his recent activities.)

After about 10,000 miles of traveling last school year and this summer, this year I have been traveling about 5,000 miles to preach, give speeches and visit.

On October 7, 1956, I went home with Larry Harris and preached at Farmington, Ky., and on October 14 I went to preach at Collinwood, Tenn., where Malcom Hill preaches. On Oct. 21, preached at Cloverport Church at Toone, Tenn. October 28, I went to preached at Coldwater, Ky., at the place of Brother Brinn, while he was holding meeting.

November 4, I preached at Handricks Chapel at Florence, Ala., where Landon Sanders preaches. November 7, preached at Shiloh Park with Bro. Scott. November 11 preached at a place 18 miles south of Tascombia company with Jack Esslinger.

I also preached at Hohenwald, Windrow, and Linden, Tennessee. On October 18, I gave a talk at PTA club at Adamsville High School accompanied with Bro. Bradford and Lynn Anderson of Canada. October 22, I went to give a talk and showed abacus and played harmonica at Mrs. E. D. Brigrance's class at CCHS.

Total miles I traveled since Sept. 24, 1956 is around 5,000 miles. Spoke to around 2 or 3,000 people. I enjoy my traveling very much and believe traveling is one of the unforgettable education to me that I had in the States.

Scholarships Are Offered To Girls

Class Group Visits Co-op Office; Bank

On Monday, November 5, the Introduction to Business class visited the Chester Farmers Co-op and on Wednesday, November 14, they visited the First State Bank in Henderson. They were accompanied by J. Walker Whittle, the instructor. The purpose of the visit to the Co-op office was to learn about the actual work of the co-op.

Mr. Houston Carroll, manager of the Chester Farmers Co-op and Mr. Clifford Tarpley, head of the Jackson Production Credit Association, spoke to the class about the organization and management of the co-op.

At the bank, Mr. Jack Bullner instructed the class on the business, operation and purposes of the bank. He showed them the different quarters of the bank and explained the operations of each. He also took the class through the vault and showed them the different machines used in the bank.

CAMPUS SEARCHLIGHT

Well, Thanksgiving Day is over and now everyone is looking forward to old Saint Nick. During the holidays, a few wedlocks will occur namely MALCOLM HILL; RUTH MORRIS and HOWARD BLAZER; PEGGY BROWN; BETTY NUNNALLY and yours truly.

MARK HICKS, why don't you teach JO ANN HODGES to skate? It seems she falls a lot lately. CAROLYN BRIDGES has been hearing noises or bells or something. One night poor CAROLYN dreamed her mother wouldn't come see her because of the loud ticking clock in her room. An alarm went off and woke her. A few girls on second had gathered up some clocks and set them for different times of the night.

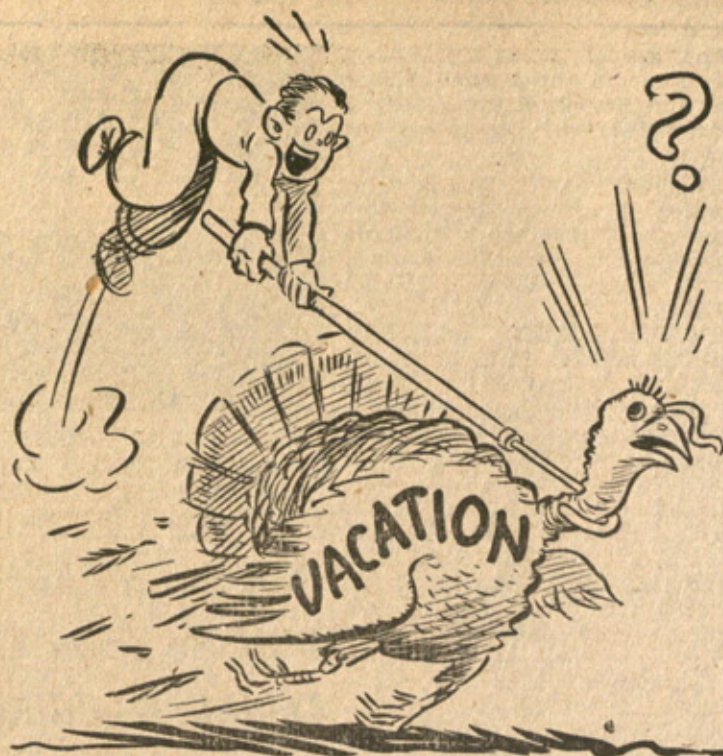

SANDRA BRUCE and BETTY BURGIN have lost two jars of preserves and if anyone has seen them, please send them home. Speaking of BETTY, she and RICHARD KRUSE are dating quite a bit. ELAINE BALKOM and ANCIL JENKINS must be really gone. They sit out in the cold on a bench just to talk. It's all right, kids, but when it snows you are supposed to come in. It is rumored around that SONDRRA HERRINGTON and CHUCK CREASEY are going to take the leap during Xmas holidays. They haven't been speaking too much to each other after they went riding one afternoon. What did you think when you looked in that rear view mirror, Chuck? SONDRRA's roommate, SHERALD JERNIGAN is going steady with LEE SMITH. Among the new steadies: MARTHA EDMONDS and WAYNE EMMONS have swapped rings; so have JOYCE PINCKLEY and JOE CHILDRESS; ALICE MAY PLANTS and HOWELL LASSITER; ARLENE CARTER and JERRY TAYLOR.

There would be more gossip in this column, but the writer cannot keep up with this fast moving group of people. By the time the paper is published, some of the kids will have gone "steady" two or three times.

ANNETTE ALLMOND is always saying she wants to make a speech in class on her scars. Can't understand why she don't. Why does JIM ROBERTS go to the library so much? Could it be one library assistant with the initials of BETTY LANCASTER.

BRO. ZICKEFOOSE, it will take more than faith to keep you from falling on your head if you don't give BILLY BOWEN an A in Personal Hygiene. DONALD HALL created quite a sensation during the Alpha Tau Chapel program. Way to go, Elvis!!

Having fire drills is getting to be a habit. This time the people at play practice got the enjoyment of seeing HAZEL MELTON and RONELA FOX with towel turbans on. They got caught in the shower. DALE BUCKLEY and his wife, oops, what were you doing there? DORIS BROOKS was sitting in the lobby when ARLENE HOGAN came down stairs and started ringing the fire alarm like mad. DORIS thought ARLENE had gone off her rocker and wondered why in the world didn't the crazy thing run. When DORIS saw SUE BLACK running to help her she thought the whole place was going mad. Say, JEAN TERRY,

Final Examinations Held December 10-12; Thursday Starts Vacation As Students Begin Trips Homeward

December 12 will bring to a close the Fall quarter of the 1956-57 college year for Freed-Hardeman.

From December 12 to December 31, students will enjoy a vacation with parents and friends with no study worries.

Wednesday, December 12, also concludes the test week for the Fall quarter which began Monday, December 10.

F.H.C. students enjoy approximately three weeks of Christmas vacation because of the merger of other holidays such as Thanksgiving and Labor Day. This extended length of time allows students from distant points plenty of time to make the round trip home and enjoy a visit with their families.

The Winter quarter will begin with registration December 31, 1956. Classes will begin January 1, 1957.

The night was warm, the room was dark;
Not any light; not even a spark
Shone on the two as they sat alone
The little brown dog and his chicken bone.
"The Colonel"

what do fire drills remind you of? SHIRLEY ALEXANDER will burn up if there is a real fire because she was asleep when the alarm went off and she didn't even turn over.

Well, this is about all. Since I'm leaving this match factory to go into the RICE industry, I bid you all a Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year.

Freshmen Added To Yearbook Staff

With the addition of nineteen freshmen, the 1956-57 Treasure Chest staff is complete. These freshmen chosen on the basis of their ability and experience were recently introduced to the student body.

On the business staff will be Jerry Taylor, Paul Spears, Gerald White, Martha Edmond, and Bobbie Counsell. Organizations, Glenda Haynie, Arlene Hogan, Larry Fleming and Sara Collum; Classes, Yvonne Milan and Carol Williams; Academic, Sue Scott and Edith Flowers; Features, Diane Bruce; Religion, Peggy Eubank and Elizabeth Smith; Student Life, Shirley Hysmith; Snapshots, Jerry Barber; and Art Editor, Hazel Logan.

Lipscomb Bison Win Over FHC Lions 68-66 In Thrilling Battle Before A Record-Breaking Homecoming Crowd

The visiting David Lipscomb basketball squad edged by a fighting Freed-Hardeman Lions team Thanksgiving Day. The Lions were on the short end of a 68-66 count.

The Lions started slowly as Lipscomb rolled up a 21-9 count at the end of the first quarter. The Lions rallied somewhat but the halftime score was Lipscomb 41, Freed-Hardeman 26.

After the intermission the Lions came roaring back as the smaller Lions began to press the taller, slower Bisons. At the end of the third quarter the lead had been cut to 53-51. With four minutes left the Lions knotted the count at 61-61 and with 35 seconds left Freed-Hardeman leading 66-64. However fouls cost the Lions the victory. Lipscomb's Archie Crenshaw tossed in three and Paul Brannon one in the last minute.

Jerry Moore was the leading scorer for the Lions with 25 while Binkley had 18 for Lipscomb.

Philos Defeat All Stars For 1956-57 Champions Title

The scrappy Philo football team edged by the society All-Stars 6-0, on Wednesday, November 21. Despite the damp field, and the cold weather, the game was characterized by sharp passing and great defensive play.

The Philos scored about midway of the first quarter. On fourth down Webb dropped back in punt formation but the kick was blocked by the middle of the Philo line. The Philos gained possession on about the thirty yard line in All star territory. On the first play George Dumas faded and hit Joe Taylor on the three yard line. Two plays later Dumas threw to Garner in the end zone for six points. On the try for the point, Dumas was smothered before he could get his pass away.

The All-Stars threatened late in the second quarter. Hill passed to Evans to the twenty. With inches remaining for the first down, Lockhart bucked the middle of the line for the necessary yardage. Lockhart faded and hit Evans inches short of the goal line as the half ended.

The All-Stars made a final attempt late in the fourth quarter. Lockhart again hit Evans deep in Philo territory. An end run down to the five yard line seemed to put the All-stars in scoring position but a clipping penalty was called against the All-stars and fifteen big yards were assessed against the Stars. On the next play East intercepted a pass to end the game.

Nothing is particularly hard if divided into little parts.

LIONS ROAR

By Ancil Jenkins

Now that football has breathed its last, we see America's most widely attended sport, basketball is coming into view on the sports horizon. Freed-Hardeman is no exception to the general rule that when a game is being played, all else is forgotten. English comp, survey, lit, and all the rest are cast aside as the loyal fans come in mass to support the Lions. We at Freed-Hardeman have shown a fine spirit in supporting the team, let's keep it up and we will be rewarded with a team that tried every minute it is on the floor.

Was my face red!! In case you have seen me with my collar turned up and avoiding crowds the past few weeks now it can be told. In the October issue of the Sky Rocket you will find a story with this headline "Kerby Farrell, Alumnus of FHC Named Cleveland Indian Manager". To me it was a good story, well written, to the point and factual. However, there was only one thing wrong with it. It was about two months too early. Yours truly had committed the greatest sin of a news reporter. He printed a rumor. And then, too late, after the story was printed some kind soul told me the horrible truth.

Farrell was not the manager of the Indians. So while visions of Marty Marion and Leo Durocher danced in the head of Hank Greenberg, the editor sweated blood. Finally the day came for the big announcement. When Kerby Farrell was named the new manager, probably the happiest person, next to Farrell himself, was your editor. So Mister Farrell, at this time I wish to extend my heart felt congratulations and best wishes for the season to come. And also, my deepest apologies for the mistake. And from now on I'll investigate the rumors and print the facts.

A yearly feature of this column is to try to pick the winners of the bowl games. I am going to stick my neck out again so get your axes ready.

ROSE BOWL: In this one Iowa meets Oregon State. These two teams met earlier and Iowa won 14-13. Here again the age old battle of T formation vs the single wing is fought. On the basis of past experience I pick IOWA.

COTTON BOWL: Last year I picked TCU to take Ole Miss, but Mississippi won 14-13. This year again TCU is in the bowl.

They are up against a good team in Syracuse and a good halfback in Jim Brown. However I don't think TCU will disappoint me twice. TCU.

GATOR BOWL: This is a rematch of last year's Sugar Bowl bringing together Pittsburg and Georgia Tech. Well go along with a good thing. GEORGIA TECH.

SUGAR BOWL: Mighty Tennessee, undefeated in ten games goes up against Baylor of the Southeast Conference. However, Tennessee has too much depth for Baylor—TENNESSEE.

ORANGE BOWL: This game should be a close one and could be rated as a tossup. Clemson of the Atlantic Coast Conference and Colorado of the Big Seven will tangle horns. Here goes a guess — COLORADO.

Thanksgiving Day brought to an end one of the most successful intramural seasons in the history of the school. More students participated than ever before. The touch football race ended with the Philos on top followed by the Alpha Taus, Phi Kappas, and Sigma Rhos in that order. Other events were tennis, horse shoes, and girl's volleyball. the Alpha Taus defeating the Sigma Rhos for the championship. If the fall season is an indication of things to come, this should be an interesting year.

Alpha Gamma Deltas Guests At Spaghetti Supper

A spaghetti supper was held for the Alpha Gamma Delta at the apartment of Joe Taylor on Tuesday night, November 13.

Ten of the 12 members were present accompanied by Dean E. Claude Gardner, sponsor of the club.

The supper was given by Joe Taylor and Francis Williams and was prepared by their wives.

Wear your learning like your watch, in a private pocket; and do not pull it out, and strike it, merely to show that you have one. —Lord Chesterfield.

When students were asked what they planned to do over the Christmas holidays, the replies were as follows:

Jane Ezzell: "Just gonna stay home with my family."

John Moore: "Work and preach, I guess."

Peggy Romans: "Christmas shopping, visit with friends and relatives, and doing a lot of loafing."

Nancy Price: "Don't ask me. Work. That's all."

Theresa Toar: "Spend all of my time with Tony. Think of that."

Eldon Hollis: "I am going duck and squirrel huntin'."

Ed Lundrigan: "Model bathing suits and talk to models."

Barbara Wilson: "What am I going to do? Nothing but loaf."

Bill Harris: "My brother came home from the Navy, and we are going hunting together."

Janet Young: "I want to visit my old school pupils."
