FREED-HARDEMAN PLAYS FIRST GAME

BEMIS DEFEATS F. H. C. BY 76-46

A powerful Bemis quintet downed Freed-Hardeman in a bitter sea of field goals, Thursday, November 8 at the Bemis Y.M.C.A. The final tally read 76-46. With this game F. H. C. resumed basketball play after a lapse of eight years. Although this first game went on record as a total defeat, the team exhibited a potential powerhouse that may be unleashed against future foes.

Starting lineup for the Lions was James Daniels, forward; Jack Newberry, forward; M. Volmer, center; Charles Landers, guard; and Joe Lewis at the second guard position.

The first quarter saw Bemis take the lead eleven to one in the first few minutes of play. Although playing furiously and doing some fine ball-handling, the F. H. C. five were unable to find the goal range. Using the fast break Bemis scored from almost every position on the floor. The game progressed at a rapid pace with some very fancy dribbling exhibited by the Lions as they tightened up their defense against the Bemis boys.

At the half-way point of the game the Lions were held by a 20 point lead. Resuming the third quarter of play with renewed vigor, the F. H. C. five began to find the range and hit Bemis' margin was increased basket by basket until they were ahead by almost 30 points.

The boys from F. H. C. began to really play fine basketball, both offensively and defensively, in the final quarter. The Bemis five still in charge of the

THANKSGIVING DAY PROGRAM CHANGED

The Board of Directors of the Freed-Hardeman Alumni Association announced a change of date for the scheduled Thanksgiving Day Program. C. P. Roland, Dean, announced in a recent chapel exercise that the annual Alumni Program would be held November 23 instead of November 30 as previously announced. This change was made in order that our holiday might be the same as the national holiday thus giving more people the opportunity to attend the Alumni Program.

The individual events as announced in the last issue of the SKY ROCKET will remain unchanged, according to latest information received from the Association.

Recent Visitors Spoke In Chapel

Chapel talks are an inspiration to those who hear, but especially when the speaker is a visitor to our campus. Two such men have spoken in our chapel programs recently. Bro. James Miller and Bro. Charles Brewer. Both of these men are gospel preachers and excellent speakers from the standpoint of manner and delivery and also from the content of the speech. Bro. Miller has completed twenty-two gospel meetings and two religious debates. This speaks for itself in recommending him. His pleasing personality, ready wit, and clearness of thought made his discussion both profitable and pleasing. He briefly discussed some "Unchanging Things in a Changing World." Because of its content and the interest expressed by the students we are presenting a brief outline of his address.

Unchanging Things in a Changing World

1. Nothing that really matters has not changed.

2. Jesus Christ is still the same.

3. Love is still worth just as much as ever.

4. Truth is still valuable, still able to make men free.

5. Truth of Jesus Christ is an unchanging Truth.

6. It is same gospel as preached on Pentecost and the church is still as valuable.

The second guest speaker, Bro. Brewer, was a fellow teacher with Bro. Hall some years ago in Lipscomb. He chose for his subject, "The Things Jesus Did Not Do". His sincere manner and humble attitude along with his method of presentation made the lesson an impressive one. The following is a brief outline of his sermon.

The Things Jesus Did Not Do

1. Things Jesus did not do are not recorded.

2. It would be profitable to examine things he did not do.

3. The character of Jesus also revealed in things he did not do.

4. He yielded not to Satan's temptations.

5. Many times we must sacrifice for principal.

6. A man is not fit to live until he is willing to die.—Matt. 10:39.

These speeches are examples of what the chapel period has to offer us. Those who miss chapel intentionally are robbing themselves of a feast of good things each day.

When we have to swallow our own medicine the spoon always seems about three times as big.

Five Baptized During Meeting By Bro. Stocks

The people of Henderson and surrounding sections have had a wonderful opportunity to hear the gospel preached in its purity. The church here has been engaged in a gospel meeting. Brother Bonds Stocks of Jackson, Mississippi did the preaching and our own Brother Doyle led the singing. All must agree that much good has been accomplished. Five precious souls responded to the invitation of the Lord and obeyed Him in baptism. Pure, simple gospel preaching and singing is still powerful and will always remain so.

Brother Stocks is a former student of the school. He worked for sometime in Washington as secretary for Senator Rankin from Mississippi. Later he decided to give his full time to proclaiming the "unsearchable riches of Christ."

His humble, yet firm, his loving, yet deliberate, attitude is appealing to all. His manner of speech is that of friend talking to friend out of love one for the other. His sound reasoning and straightforward presentation of the truth commands the attention of his audience. His knowledge of the Word makes his sermons rich and causes all to respect him. Yet his unassuming attitude shows his humility in all things. His selection of subjects shows much thought and has been very effective during the meeting. The talks in the morning sessions at the college have been beneficial to all who heard. They were short and to the point, containing much food for thought.

Brother Doyle, a member of the F.H.C. faculty, did an excellent job in leading the singing. He came to us from Lipscomb and before that attended Harding College. His knowledge of music and his ability as a song leader has been shown during the meeting. The songs selected were always connected in thought to that presented in the sermon. Good gospel singing is a very good argument against the innovation of the mechanical instrument of music. This was demonstrated during the meeting.

Truly the period between October 22 and November 1, 1950, has been a blessing to those who heard the good preaching and singing carried on by the church in Henderson. It has truly been a feast of good things. Brother Stocks, Brother Doyle, and all concerned did an excellent job. Those who needed to, and yet did not obey the gospel should realize that they neglected a great opportunity and answered "I will deny Him," to the great question "What will I do with Jesus, the Christ?"

Dixon In Meeting In Murray, Ky.

Brother Dixon was away from the campus from October 15-22 while he was engaged in a gospel meeting in Murray, Kentucky. He reports a very fine meeting with large audiences and fine interest. Eleven were baptized and one restored. Several preachers from surrounding congregations attended the meeting. John Brinn, a former F. H. C. student, preaches for the church there.

Brother Dixon plans to be away from the campus for two more meetings this year. One will be in April at Jackson, Miss., where Brother Stocks preaches, and the other one will be held later in Memphis. It is his plan to cut his schedule to only two meetings during the school term next year, one for the fall term and one in the spring.

Rare Book Found; VanDyke Is Author

The following quotation was written on the board in the Bible room of F. H. C.

II Van Dyke 2:6-10 (Affectionately dedicated to 11 a.m. Church History Class)

6. What does it profit a student if he reads the whole book and takes my test?

7. Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that knows the least in this class shall inherit the greatest score.

8. Let all the congregation say AMEN.

9. Behold, ye shall derange your seats to that alphabetical perfection of which I have forewarned you; and ye shall not squirm in thy tabernacle until I do cease my enlightened oratory (for I be lit), until the signal doth sound, though it be the day of judgment, or the blast of Gabriel.

10. Let all the congregation say AMEN.

Authorities add, "Whoso taketh my 11 o'clock class surely shall be late for lunch."

This is the reply that Brother Van Dyke gave the author.

II Van Dyke 2:11-15

11. What doth it profit a student if he reads the whole book and taketh my test, unless he retaineth in his mind that which he hath read.

12. Verily, verily, I say unto you, no student in this class shall inherit a score unless he knoweth at least a little; and, moreover, what a student knoweth is judged by how he writeth on my tests; for out of the abundance of the mind the hand writeth. Oh, ye of little learning!

13. Let all the class be forewarned.

14. Behold, this class' heart is waxed gross, their ears are dull of hearing, their eyes have closed, lest at any time they should be stirred from their unenlightened lethargy (for they be not lit); and it seemeth that they cannot be stirred, though it be the day of judgment or the blast of Gabriel.

15. Let all the class be forewarned.

Some authorities add that they could never be aroused if it were not for fear that they will be late for lunch.

Endsley Now At Abilene College

J. R. Endsley, botany teacher from Henderson, Tenn., is one of the newest additions to the science department of Abilene Christian College.

Endsley received his bachelor of science degree from Union University, Jackson, Tenn., and his master of science from George Peabody University in Nashville.

Endsley is married and the father of three children, ages nine, six and four.

He is a member of the national Biological fraternity, Beta Beta Beta and the Tennessee Academy of Science. In both high school and in junior college, Endsley was the valedictorian of his class and graduated cum laude in undergraduate school.

His chief delight is in his collection of ferns which he made in West Tennessee. This is one of the largest collections available from this part of the country.

Before coming to ACC, Endsley taught in the science department at Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tenn. He enjoys working with ACC. However, it is not new to him, this being his third invitation to come and teach here.

Sadie Hawkins Reigns Over F-H College Party

What's this? The girls asking the boys? I can't believe my eyes! Of course, they've been doing it all along, but not quite so openly. Gals, this was your chance to give the man-of-your-dreams a nice, genteel hint. It seemed that most of you took the advantage, but for those who lacked courage, things were taken care of by Miss Johnson and Harry (Satch) Thomas, Jr., who introduced the less fortunate.

It took Marion Bridges long enough, but after several gulps of Hadacol she had enough courage to ask Marvin Nobles. Boy! they really looked a sight when they got there, too. Marvin who as Hezekiah, won second prize in the individual's contest, terrified almost everyone there, especially Mrs. Doyle. Ola Jane Manning came as pirate Willard Davis' lady. Gay (Cross my palm with fifty cents and I'll tell you a little more) Jones had as her date, Roy Gean. Zelda Jenkins and Charles Williams made another handsome pirate couple. Pat Stephenson and Clara Jean Worstell looked like fugitives from a kindergarten. Lady Sheriff Virginia Mitchell had caught convict Jim Krumre. Jean Jackson and date Bill Welch came as Gravel Gertie and B. O. Plenty. Their impersonation won for them the second prize in the couples competition. June Hardin with her date, Allen Dixon, looked like a "prisoner of love." Leonard Brown and Alice Marie Williams won first prize in the group competition. Leonard was dressed as the "mammy" and Alice as the "pappy" of a typical Negro couple. Standing in third place in the group competition was the Lem Sattersfield group. Louella Kirksey was dressed as "pa" and her date, Clifford Dixon was dressed as "ma". Their two little brats were Sarah Whizenhunt and Bobby Joe Simms. Cowgal Earlene Tucker caught her man Hopalong Capacity, Gene Hibbett, that is. In the single's competition, Libby Gargis, modestly dressed as a girl of the nineties, won first prize. She had caught the elusive Don Smith. Mrs. Johnson wore a stunning costume fashioned out of the most expensive burlap especially imported for this occasion from Lizard Lick. The carefully draped front was trimmed in the rarest of turnips and onions. George Herring as Hairless Joe, really did look the part. He won third prize in the single's competition. Marie (Nebraska) Richardson's date was Allen Parker. They really made a handsome (?) couple.

On the serious side, though, it was really a fine party. The decorations gave a ghostly air to the gym. The lights were dimmed by orange paper. Orange and black crepe paper streamed from the center of the gym to the side. Bunches of corn stalks were placed around the gym.

There was entertainment for everybody, too. Those foolhearties ones tried ducking for apples and trying to bite the apples on the strings. Partitioned from the rest of the crowd were genuine gypsy fortune tellers who promised to "see all, know all, and tell all". For those who like exercise there was a basketball relay. And just looking at some of the characters was certainly entertaining.

Don't let me forget to mention the refreshments! At the conclusion of the party we were served apple cider and donuts. This pleased everybody.

After that the "gals" walked their "fellars" back to the dorm. Praises of the party were heard on all sides. Everybody really enjoyed it and we're certainly looking forward to another of its kind.

PREACHERS PARAGRAPHS

Perhaps some wonder what happens to so many of our students on Saturday afternoon and where they stay until Monday. Many, of course, go home for the weekend but others go out to preach the word of God to the congregations round about us.

A large number of our boys preach for those congregations nearby and in Tennessee. For example: C. W. Kidwell preaches for the congregation at Sardis, Hubert Brandenberg works with the church at Bells and Jasper Hilliard preaches near Dyersburg. Others travel into other states. Examples of these are: Charles Williams, our blind preacher who goes to Florence, Alabama twice a month; Coleman Almond who has appointment at East Prairie, Missouri; Kenneth Felder who has regular appointment near Bowling Green, Mississippi and Leroy Woods who works with the brethren in Arkansas.

These are just a few examples of where and how F. H. C. students spent their weekends.

On Friday night, October 20, the Preachers' Club elected officers for the next six weeks. Albert Gardner was chosen as the new president, Billy Felder was elected vice-president and Clifton Willis, master of arms. These new officers will serve for six weeks.

Interest in the Preachers' Club thus far this year has been good. The speeches have been very profitable to those who heard them as well as to the speakers. Those preachers who neglect to take advantage of their opportunity to attend this meeting each Friday night are missing one of the great advantages of Freed-Hardeman College. It often seems that many of the ones who need most to have their speech corrected are the ones who do not attend. If you haven't been in attendance at these meetings, why don't you decide now to start at the next meeting? It will be good for you.

The 20th Century Christian, a very fine magazine, is sent to the school to be given free to the preachers here. About fifty copies each month are received and these are distributed through the Preachers' Club. Be sure to get your copy.

STUDENT COUNCIL
ORGANIZED AT FHC

A new organization of primary importance on the campus of F.H.C. is the Student Council. This group composed of eight students—four boys and four girls—will represent the student body and its interests, thus making for better co-operation between students and faculty. The students elected to serve in this capacity for the year and the group they represent are as follows: Boys' Dormitory, Charles W. Williams; Girls' Dormitory, Joy Martin; Senior Class, Ivan Jameson, Louise Sims; Junior Class, Carroll Eaves, Jane Williams; town students, Charles R. Williams, Tommy Gene Morris.

By BEVERLY ANN BUTLER

This month the inquiring reporter asked a cross section of the student body the question, "What do you think of having Prayer Meeting on Thursday night?" The answers received are as follows:

Allen Barber: "I see no particular need for changing prayer meeting to Thursday evening unless the majority of students feel that the gathering should be separate both in programs and assembly. The present system of worship suits me."

C. B. Billingsley: "I believe that Thursday night, or whenever it is, the students should have their own prayer meeting service."

W. R. Britt: "Although it seemingly was more convenient for the college students to meet on Thursday night and the congregation on Wednesday night, I think it best for both groups to worship together. The younger children need the training which the opportunity affords, and we as Christians should work together and wait upon one another if necessary. 'Behold how good and how pleasant for brethren to dwell together in unity.'"

Joe Corley: "It seems to me that more good could be done by having the service on Thursday night, but whatever those in charge think best meets my approval."

Jane Crum: "I think we should have it on Wednesday night if more town people will come."

Johnnie Davis: "I think it would be better and be more inspiring. More people might go."

Shirley Davis: "I believe Wednesday would be the best night."

Billye Felder: "I can see nothing wrong with the present method. Personally, Thursday night would inconvenience me because Preachers' Club meets on Friday night and that would cause me and others to be away two nights in succession. The town people seem to be interested in the service we now have. Concerning the method of study I might make a suggestion, but the time is suitable."

Betty Forrester: "It would be nice to give it a try and see how we like it."

Jean Marilyn Greene: "I think it would be much better having prayer meeting on Thursday night in order to avoid the confusion of the town people coming into the auditorium. This interrupts the seriousness of our program."

Fred Johnson: "I think it would be better than on Wednesday night. It would save some confusion during a worship period."

Marvin Noble: "I would want to do whatever the others agreed to, but I believe that the effectiveness of the service, and the results are impaired as it is. I prefer the Thursday night service."

Marjorie Pressnell: "It doesn't make any difference to me. If others prefer Thursday night and those in authority see fit to change it, that would suit me O.K."

Pat Stephenson: "It would def-

Here we are again! Sad isn't it? We do hope we haven't missed any dirt!

Pat Stevenson and a certain junior girl are the most interesting couple of the month. We have hopes that these two very nice people will be going stronger by the time you read this. Cupid couldn't do better than to use arrows on this shy twosome!

Say, just how much is a date worth? Clifton Willis says "Thirty cents!" He must have inherited some very productive oil wells or something as much as he dates! Think Clifton, is there any girl you haven't dated? You aren't tryin'; there must be someone Dale Buckley sure has been getting around lately. We think Pat Moody's cute too!

What dat? It's a whittle boriad, naw, it's a putty that, naw it's Yimmy Yenson wiff Wiginia.

Did you see that? No. It was Robert Hampton "floating" over to the dorm. Has he been to see Chi Chi again? Looks that way. Isn't love wonderful, Bob?

Hey! Joan Martin, what did you say Jimmy lied about?

Thig, what is her name? Oh! It's Joan, I remember. She surely is cute, and she writes such nice long letters too. You ought to tell her how to put the stamp on rightside up though!

Happy days! Now we can forget all the "junk" we memorized for the exams. We have three whole weeks to loaf before we have to start cramming again.

Say we have a complaint! Freed-Hardeman's old tradition of giving pennies to a boy on his first date is being run into the ground. People are giving pennies whether it's the first date or not. This practice is spoiling an old tradition that Freed-Hardeman has been fond of for many years. Let's please not give pennies unless it is the boy's first date. It's much more fun that way, and more people participate.

Can you top this? A colonel (Tosh) in the army carries a water pistol!

Did you know that hug-me-tight is in the dictionary? It is. Might be interesting to look that one up.

More food for thought; Bro. Witt is now on the D. C. but when he was here as a student—well just ask him why he traded rooms with a couple of "green" freshman boys!

We sure hate to see Josephine go to Memphis every weekend. Couldn't Tip come down here sometime?

Maybe Richard Weinagar would be interested in this. The large majority of couples "what" dated for breakfast last year are now at home listening to, or awaiting the patter of little feet.

Where did Guy Robinson get his nickname of "B. B."?

We think Brother Darnall is a good sport. After all, he's been taking a lot of kidding about falling over the fireplug!

Ho! How we love zoology! Especially those lights "what" swing back and forth. More people get hit in the back of the head that way! Ask Charles intely be better if all of God's people would come together at the same time. However, considering the objections of some, (that confusion has resulted near the close of services when students and local people meet together) it might be better for all concerned, in this case if we did meet on Thursday night."

Pat Welch: "I had rather have Prayer Meeting on Wednesday night."

Jane Yoder: "If it helps the town people to have it with them on Wednesday night, I think it would be better to have it on Wednesday night."

Coats. That's what you get for listening to the lectures.

Say Patti, why did you run into your room, lock the door, and pull the shades as soon as you got back from Jackson?

"Thig" got a package from Chi Chi. The inscription was very nice. We thought about printing it, but that would completely destroy the hugger-mugger which is so hard to find at FHC. (If you don't know what hugger-mugger means ask Bro. Hall, Jimmy Nash, or as a last resort use the dictionary.)

Zelda Jenkins sure got a big send off to Memphis the other night. About half the student body was waving good bye and pretending to be crying.

Get a load of these lucky fellows "what" married. They go visiting in the dorm while their wives stay home and make book reports, write themes, do math problems and type sermon outlines. (Of course if one happens to be in Sister Dunavant's Psychology class it takes both of them to do the homework!)

What's this Red Reid, Jane White deal? Looks good.

Beverly "Bushwater" Crixfield always manages to bring a fellow named Bill into the conversation no matter what the subject is at present. We understand though.

Lucile Poe has decided to stay around more on week-ends. Who is he? Lucky guy!

Jere Frost, why don't you stop playing hard to get? It's more fun being easy to get!

"Rosie, Rosie, give me your answer do. I'm half crazy all for the love of you!" Please Guy, stop singing, I'm trying to study.

Have you noticed how cheerful Bill Myers looks this year. That's because a very charming Mrs. Myers came along.

Francis Allen seems to be devoting all of her time to one boy now. He doesn't seem to mind either.

What was the secret behind Jane Yoder's and Thigpen's going steady? Must have been something cause it only lasted one weekend.

A certain junior girl is carrying Brother Witt's picture in her billfold. She must have forgotten that he's married.

Betty Wilkins informed me that she no longer has her boy friend's class ring, in other words she isn't going steady any more.

John Cathey and Willie Bell Young are certainly having some good times lately. How did they get started anyway?

Say, "Flea", why was it you enjoyed your weekend in Florence so much? Could it have been because of the cute girl involved?

Sammy Hartline and Dorothy Jean Thomason make quite a pair. Have you noticed it?

June Southern and Jose Garcia are really hitting it off. Watch for further developments in this interesting case.

Wilma Hurst and "Randy" are seen together quite frequently. I just wonder about this!

Congratulations to Irene Crump and Louis Randolph who have started this wonderful period of friendship called "going steady". Most of all we congratulate them for managing to keep it a secret for a few days!

C. B. Billingsley, do you always write footnotes at the bottom of your sermon outlines?

Francis Hunter is being true to her "one and only" at home. Very few girls here are, Francis, so you should be proud of yourself.

How did the Halloween party go, boys? I hear everyone had a wonderful time. Too bad none of the college girls were invited. Or maybe it was a good thing they weren't.

Several of the girls are wanting to learn to play tennis, and the strange thing about it is that they want Jerry Porter to teach them. Is it tennis or Jerry they are interested in?

What two senior girls lost their quilts? Were they embarrassed when they found them!! They still vow they didn't put them there, but I'm sure no one else would have thought of such a thing.

What was all the excitement in the girls dorm Tuesday night during chorus practice? Sounded like someone was being murdered, but surely not.

In closing we might say "Better treat 'em right, before you find you can't do without 'em."

CLUB ACTIVITIES

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club had its monthly meeting on October 25, 1950. The meeting was called to order by President Willard Davis and the secretary, Roberta Saunders read the minutes and called the roll. Jane Yoder, of the program committee introduced speakers: Frances Hunter on "Personal Appearance" and Harold Miller on "Voice and Conversation". A talk by Brother Moody was then presented emphasizing the importance of qualities brought out in both talks. The meeting was then adjourned with encouragement to each member to bring a new member to the next meeting which will be November 21, 1950.

HOME MAKERS CLUB

On October 6, the Freed-Hardeman Home Makers Club met at seven thirty P.M. in the college club room for its regular meeting. The main purpose of the meeting was the installation of officers and initiation of new members.

For entertainment the Home Makers Club sponsored the film, How To Be Popular on October 8 at six fifteen P. M. in the chapel hall.

The Home Makers Club will be represented in the state convention at Nashville, Tennessee on November 17-20 by Irene Crump, president; Jean Wall, reporter; and the advisor, Mrs. Johnson.

LIBRARY CLUB

Nine members of the Library Club met with Mrs. Dunavant in the library on Friday night, October 6, for a short business meeting. At that time Mrs. Dunavant gave a brief talk on library work and plans for a constitution were discussed.

On Monday, October 23, eleven members of the club and four visitors enjoyed a day in Nashville. The day was spent in touring the libraries of Peabody, Vanderbilt and David Lipscomb Colleges. The group had lunch on the campus of David Lipscomb College and saw many old friends of last year at F.H.C.

This was the first of several trips planned for the year.

SIGMA RHOS

The Sigma Rho Society enjoyed an outing at the college farm for their regular meeting on October 16.

After the joint society meeting October 23, the Sigma Rhos met and elected new officers to serve the society for the next six weeks. Those elected were President, Bill Moss; first vice president, Hoy Ledbetter; second vice president, Sammy Hartline; secretary, Sue Traw, sergeant at arms, Clifton Willis.

PHI KAPPA ALPHAS

On October 16 the Phi Kappas went to Chickasaw State Park for a steak fry. The afternoon was spent in roaming the hills, playing softball, and boat riding. After the steak supper, which was prepared by Brother Doyle, they returned to their rooms tired but happy.

After joint society meeting the Phi Kappas elected officers to serve for the next six weeks. They are: president, Charles Ray; first vice president, Lewis Randolph; second vice president, Jimmy Nash; secretary, Mildred Falls; sergeant at arms, Hudson Nichols.

PHILOS

The bright smiles of the Philos can be seen flashing around the campus as they go about their many tasks. On Monday, October 20, the Philos went to Chickasaw Park for their picnic. Twenty-six of the Philos' members went along with Mrs. Johnson, Miss White and Miss Mason. Six cars were provided for transportation, and there were lots of eats and games.

The Philos' chapel program was a musical consisting of a vocal solo by Carmen Faye Deming a duet number by Carmen Faye Deming and Jane Yoder and two numbers by a trio composed of Juanita Edwards, Jane Yoder and Libby Gargis with Miss White as the accompanist.

On November 1, 1950 the Philos elected new officers for the second six weeks. They are as follows: President, Bob Barker; First Vice President, Bob Buchanan; Second Vice President, Earlene Tucker; Secretary-Treasurer, Jane White. This concludes the Philo activities for the past month.

ALPHA TAU LAMBA

The Alpha Tau Lambda, the largest society in Freed-Hardeman, has gotten off to a fine start. It has had three business meetings since the last report.

The Alpha Taus had a short business meeting after joint society meeting for the purpose of electing new officers for the next six weeks. Those elected were: president, Laverne Moore; first vice president, Pat Stephenson; second vice president, Bill Welch; secretary, Toby Hogan and sergeant at arms, Guy Roberson.

The Alpha Taus are leading the other societies in softball and the future looks bright in this field of sports.

Another chapel program was presented by the Alpha Taus on November 2. They gave their annual, hilarious production of Pine Grove.

Watch for more interesting events the rest of the year from the Alpha Tau Lambda Society.

CLUB-ROOM CAPERS

Are you one of the many students who avails himself of the club-room activities? Why, there are games galore, each to his taste or variety.

Perhaps, you and your friend would like to piece together a puzzle. Before long, Tom, Dick, and Harry have joined you without your knowledge. Tom says, "Here is the piece we've been searching for."

Then Dick finds a section of the boat which is tossing in the majestic sea. But then, Harry never was too apt when it comes to being patient long enough to complete a puzzle.

Changing our course, we see Joan, June, Jane and Joyce playing cards with Bob, Bill, Brad and Brodrick. Suppose you don't like the records that are being played; my friend, just race over and change them to suit your fancy. The platters range from a slow retreat to the boogie beat.

Someone told me that there are very few there at times. Now listen while I tell you about a place I know, down in Tennessee where the tall corn grows. It's just a shack full of solid Jacks. So come on up and just relax.

You don't have to be somebody to join the fun. There is no cover charge for anyone. I told you about Tom, Dick and Harry. They weren't personal friends of mine, just people like you and me.

Tonight and any vacant night, bring a friend and help make the club room what it should be. Say Buddy, I hope to see you there tonight, with bells on.

DID YOU KNOW?

MARRIAGES

Wedding bells rang during this fall for some past students of Freed-Hardeman. On October 3, Robert Atkinson and Lee Dance were married in Massillon, Ohio. In Akron, Ohio, October 19, Roy Beggs and Glynda Meadows were married. Foy Cherry and Ann Smith were married in West Virginia on October 20.

Dorothy Farris of Eldridge, Alabama became Mrs. Kelly Doyle on August 23. Brother and Sister Doyle are employed at Freed-Hardeman now. Dorothy is now secretary to President Dixon and Brother Doyle is head of the Music Department.

We wish all of these all the happiness possible.

STORK VISITS GANTTS

Brother and Sister Dwyatt Gantt became the proud parents of a seven pound daughter at seven twenty p.m. on October 12. The baby was born in the Webb-Williamson hospital in Jackson, Tennessee and they have named the baby Nita Mardell. Sister Gantt has returned from the hospital and her condition is good.

James Horton's

Studio

Hello, boys and girls! Here's your favorite columnist IMA SNOOPER, back on her job again. It's been loads of fun snooping on you the past month. Since you're all wanting to know who I am, I'll let you in on a little secret. I'm six feet, two inches tall, (tall enough to see everything that goes on), have pointed ears (to stick through keyholes in the dorm), am very small, around, that is (to squeeze through little places to get in the midst of everything), and have four eyes, the better to see you with, my dears!

Seems that Dot Newsom took the hint about her secret engagement seriously. She's wearing her diamond ring now.

Joan Martin may have a boy friend back home, but you could never tell by the way she acts when she's around Jimmy Nash.

Theta Leewright just won't let anyone know what boy she's interested in. She's not even told her roommate, cause if she did I'd know.

Patti Sanders and Frank Patterson are really hitting it off good already. Good luck, Patti!

Why were June Hardin and Allen Dixon so embarrassed after church the last Sunday night of the meeting?

From all reports the Philos really had a good time on their picnic, especially Beverly Butler and Fred Johnson.

Who are the girls on the third floor of the dorm who shoot water from water guns out the windows on the couples below? Better watch it girls, the tables may turn some day!

Bud Huntoon and Marion Kendrick are really getting around. They make a cute couple, too.

June Southern and her Mississippi boy friend had a lot of fun when June visited there with Helen. Wonder how things will go now since she and Jose have been seeing so much of each other.

So Tom Holland finally got around to asking someone for a date. And the lucky girl was none other than Jane Crum.

Libby Gargis certainly didn't lose any time about getting back into circulation.

Who were the kids that missed the train to Jackson Saturday night then had to go in a car? Was this accidental?

Robert Taylor, you'd better be careful about going off over the week-ends, 'cause your roommate certainly takes over when you leave.

I heard the other day that Louise Rhodes said she was in love. Of course, it must be Don Rudd.

Roy Gean, I thought you knew better than to stand up a girl at F.H.C. It'll take a long time for you to live that down here.

It's rumored that Sue Traw really likes Whiz, and vice versa. Watch this romance, kids, 'cause it could develop into something serious, and also interesting.

What's this I heard about Robert Spain walking Dorothy Thomason and Zelda Jenkins home after church services one night during the meeting?? Let's don't fight over him, girls.

$-Ray Treatment

Into the doctor's office sprang a happy, healthy looking young man. "Doc," he said, "I want to thank you. I've benefited immensely from your treatments."

"But I don't understand," the doctor exclaimed, "You've never been a patient of mine."

"That's true," the young man agreed. "However, my uncle was—and I'm his heir."

Richard Winnegar: You're very pretty, if I may say so.

Milnea: You may say so, but not in public.

Richard: Okay, you're very pretty, but not in public.

One Good Turn Deserves Better

Out of the lead car in the crack-up stepped a woman driver. A man was already coming forward from the car that had smashed into hers.

"Really, I don't understand your carelessness," complained the lady. "I turned the way I had signaled I would."

"True," nodded the man, "That's what confused me."

Soles Of Wit

Jere Frost was greeted at the door by Brother Hall. The enthusiastic host did not notice Jere gazing down self-consciously at his muddy shoes as he said warmly, "I'm so glad to see you. Won't you come in?"

"I---I'd rather not," stuttered Jere. "My feet are dirty."

Brother Hall: "Oh, that does not matter, Jere. Just keep your shoes on and no one will notice."

Brother Gardner: "Well, what is the difference between the northern Eskimos and the southern Eskimos?"

June Southern: "The northern Eskimos say: 'Glug, glug.' The southern Eskimos say: 'Glug, glug, you all.'"

Privileged Class

Workman: "I'll take the job if you can find me some place to park my car."

Foreman: "Guess you won't do, bud. We only hire bricklayers with chauffeurs."

Mr. White: "So, young man, you wish to become my son-in-law."

Brother Darnall: "No, but if I marry your daughter, Betty, I don't see how I can avoid it."

One Sunday morning Brother and Sister Dunavant were late for church services and as they approached the church building, Sister Dunavant listening to the singing coming from the inside, remarked: "Isn't that singing beautiful?" Brother Dunavant looking closely at the crickets along the walk, replied, "Yes, and the most amazing thing about it is they do it all by rubbing their hind legs together."

Why Re-Hash It?

A pious housewife we know happens also to be a very thrifty one. She never wastes any food, but specializes in doing things with leftovers. One Sunday she baked a large ham, and for days after that her husband got it for dinner, minced, deviled and with eggs. At the end of the week, as he started to dig into ham croquettes, his wife asked, "But dear, aren't you going to say grace before the meal?"

The husband looked up hungrily. "I will, pet," he declared, "if you can name a single thing here that hasn't been blessed before."

Custom

It's getting so in Hollywood, The bride keeps her bouquet, And just to be in style she Throws the groom away.

The Obedient Ant

An ant was racing with all his might across the top of a new box of cornflakes. Suddenly he ran nto another ant. "What's the hurry, chum?" the second ant inquired?

"Can't you read?" gasped the first. "It tells you right here. Tear along the dotted line."

Two Old Maids

Two old maids lying in bed One turned over and The other said, "Goodnight Irene."

"Most accidents," the young wife, Juanita, quoted from the newspaper, "occur in the kitchen." To which her husband, Everett, replied, "Yup, and I have to eat them!"

TALKING TO WHOM?

A little boy was saying his go-to-bed prayers in a very low voice. "I can't hear you, dear," his mother whispered. "Wasn't talking to you," said the small one firmly.

ALPHA TAUS TURN BACK PHILOS 7 TO 6

The Alpha Taus, fighting mad after four straight defeats, battled the Philos to a 7 to 6 victory. The Philos scored first on a pass from Reid to Ed Daniels. That added fuel to the Alpha Tau's burning irritation. Then came the play of the game. The whole Philo team watched Cleo Hanna streak down the sidelines for 37 yards and the score.

The game ended in a tie, and a ruling was made. Each team was given four attempts in carrying the pig skin. The one with the most yardage was to be the winner. Again Hanna sparked his team and this time to victory.

PHI KAPPAS ROMP 18-0

Phi Kappa's hard riding team took no pity on their opposition as they defeated the Alpha Taus to the tune of 18 to 0.

Dead-eye Hudson Nichols doggedly pursued his appointed task with three touchdown passes. It was the team's third victory against two setbacks.

The outstanding player of the game was George Herring. His blocking, receiving and pass interceptions played an important part in his team's victory.

Philos Top Sigma Rhos 18-12

Twice beaten Philos opened the scoring on the very first play. Red Reid flipped a pass to L. J. Millands that covered 35 yards for the score. Again Reid and L. J. Millands teamed together for another score this covering 50 yards.

During the second half the Philos struck pay dirt with Allen Dixon bringing in the score.

The Sigma Rhos trailed by 18 points as the last period began. The Sigma Rhos had been stopped cold by Philo's defensive line for three periods, but suddenly blasted through with two scores in the last half in the fourth period.

One was a beautiful pass play by Coleman Allmond to Don Rudd. The other was a pass interception again by Rudd who scampered the remaining 20 yards for the final score of the game.

SIGMA RHO 11 PHILOS 10

This game was nerve racking until the last out. The Sigma Rhos were well ahead until the last inning. Then, the Philos jumped on Sammy Hartline for 8 quick runs, but Hartline found himself and struck out the last man. It was the first victory in five starts for the Sigma Rhos.

SIGMA RHOS DOWN ALPHA TAUS 12-0

A surging Sigma Rho team swept the Alpha Taus to their fourth straight loss.

Although deadlocked in the first half, Allmond and his mates went to work in the second half. The quarterback pitched his way from the 40 yard line to the 10. The remaining yardage was on a pass from Allmond to Allen Barber. The other and final score was the combination of Coleman Allmond and Thomas which covered 21 yards.

BEMIS DEFEATS

F. H. C. BY 76-46

game began to run into considerable difficulty in transporting the ball to their goal. A number of times the ball was stolen out of the player's hand as he dribbled toward the Bemis goal.

The Lions also began to score from long range avoiding the tight Bemis defense under the goal.

When the final buzzer sounded the Lions had been defeated by a margin of thirty points.

One highlight of the game was the almost deadly accuracy of the foul shots. During the game both teams exhibited fine basketball playing and good sportsmanship.

Leading the cheers of the F.H.C. rooters were Bill Threet, Janie Dodds, Louise Sims, Jean Jackson and Jane White. These five were elected Monday, November 4.

NOTICE

Our next game is Nov. 30, so let's back our team.

Get those F.H.C. caps. Show people where you are from. They are on sale at the college book store.

Our team has been practicing for two weeks and it seems as if Bro. Witt's boys will have another good year in basketball. Beware!
