NOVEMBER 17, 1958

Riddle of Lions' Homecoming "Court" is Solved

Alumni To Return;
2,000 Estimated
For FHC Vs DLC;
Begins Wed. 26

The Freed-Hardeman College Homecoming Queen will be crowned November 27, at 2:45 p.m. in the Chester County High School Gymnasium. Immediately following the crowning of the queen will be the climax of the annual Freed-Hardeman College Homecoming, which is the basketball game of David Lipscomb vs. Freed-Hardeman College. An estimated 2,000 people will attend the ball game.

Morgan to Speak

The actual Homecoming program will begin Wednesday night, November 26. Joe Morgan, Commissioner of Education for Tennessee, will speak at the Wednesday night church service at 7:30. Following the church service, there will be a pep rally and volleyball game in the gymnasium.

Progress Report

Thursday, there will be a devotional service, at which time Dean E. Claude Gardner will present a progress report. An Alumni chorus and the Freed-Hardeman College chorus, both directed by Kelly B. Doyle, will sing.

Dedication Ceremonies

A chicken box lunch will be served in the cafeteria beginning at 11:30.

The program begins at 1 p.m. with the dedication ceremonies for the new women's dormitory.

At 1:45, there will be a general Alumni pep meeting. Alumni president, A. C. Carpenter, will preside. An Alumni quartet composed of Albert Holland and Lee Green, Memphis; J. E. Williams, Humboldt; and James Greer, Nashville, will sing. This will be followed by the college Sky Rocket quartet.

Open Type Letters Placed On Dorms

The letters, H. A. DIXON HALL are to be placed open air style over the entrance of the new dormitory and HALL ROLAND HALL on the face of Oakland Hall toward Cason Street.

Plaques, with the names of the donors to the new girls dormitory, are to be placed on the doors of the rooms in the near future.

A large plaque is to be put in the lobby with the names of those who contributed for the furniture therein.

AT's and PK's Elect Officers

New officers of the Phi Kappa's are vice president, Kenneth Bray, and team captains, Jo Holladay and Ronald McIndoo.

The Alpha Tau officers for the second six weeks are: president, Tom McAuley; vice-president, Bob Moore; and secretary, Nowana Maynard.

The Alpha Taus will present the chapel program on Thursday of this week.

JANICE CAROLE PAT DOT PEGGY

Campus Co-eds
Are Selected;
Queen Will Be Crowned Nov. 27

The Lions basketball team has selected the 1958-59 Freed-Hardeman College Homecoming Court. The chosen co-eds are: Dot Allen, Pat Spiceland, Carole Willis, Peggy Wade and Janice Rush.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Allen, Dot is majoring in business. Her home is in Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

Pat is a second year student and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spiceland, Belleville, Michigan. She is majoring in business.

Carole, from Humboldt, Tennessee, is majoring in secondary education. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Willis.

Majoring in the field of elementary education is Peggy Wade. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Wade, Owensboro, Kentucky.

Blonde and blue-eyed Janice, whose major is physical education, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Rush. Their home is in Henderson, Tennessee.

Prudence on Stage in "Stardust" November 25

The Freed-Hardeman College Thespians will present "Stardust", a comedy in three acts by Walter Kerr, Tuesday evening, November 25, 7:30.

The students of a dramatic school, the Academy of Dramatic and Allied Arts, are expecting a famous actress, Prudence Mason (Judy McKenzie), to appear in one of their productions. The professor is Professor Bach (Ronald Lents), who studied under Stanislavsky and has taught his students that they must "live" the parts they portray. They do, to the surprise of Miss Mason, who has been taught to "imagine" the parts she plays. She has decided to be in their play to give her time to think about marrying Arthur Scott, Junior (Bill Brackeen), a prominent businessman.

One of Miss Mason's friends, Claire Carter (Janice Kurz), comes to her rescue and helps her face the students. The situation is further complicated by the appearance of a talent scout, Jerry Flanagan (Dave Miller), from Hollywood. Conversation with one of the students is misunderstood by the Dean of Women (Yvonne Powell) who threatens to ruin Miss Mason's career.

The students in the Academy are played by Johnny Adams, Linda Milburn, Joy Simon, Andolyn Thompson, John Sims, Barbara Wheeler, Donna Shipman, Stanley Reel, Rose Dyer, Willadean Maness, Phillip Hall.

James Whitworth is stage manager.

Display Fixed By FHC-SNEA

Last week, November 9-15, was National Education Week. The theme for this year was "Visit Your Child's School". The Torchlight club (SNEA chapter of FHC) placed a display in Morgan's Furniture Store in Henderson. The publicity committee of the Torchlight club made and arranged the display. The chairman of the committee is Dick Hackett; the members are Barbara Harraway, Walter Wells, Susan Rimer, and Ronald Lents. They are also making plans for an exhibit during the lectureship.

The final enrollment number of the Torchlight Club for the 1958-59 school year was a record 80. The Torchlight pennants have arrived and will be sold to all members at 50 cents each.

Freshmen Will Assist Publishing

The Treasure Chest of 1959 has announced the freshmen selected to assist in publishing the Annual.

On the editorial staff: organization, Elizabeth Taylor and Carol Willis; school life, Fran Wilcoxson; academics, Ann Averitt; religion, Jan McBride; sports, Paul Morgan; faculty, Judy Bulliner; classes, Peggy Wade and Linda Milburn; typists, Sara Sain and Linda Roberts.

On the business staff are Linda Carr, Paul Taylor, Joan Gould, Gloria Lawson and Wayne Smith.

Ron, Judy, Dave, Johnny, Joy, Willadean, Donna and Andy are "front and center" to demonstrate coming performance.

WATCH OUT!! don't get too busy.

If we're so busy that we don't take time to smile and say "hi" to the people we meet in the halls - - - aren't we too busy?

Do we sometimes get so busy worrying about the things we have to do that we don't get busy and do them?

Too busy to study your Bible each day?

concentrate when you're worshipping God?

help someone else?

think seriously, yet be cheerful?

apply self discipline?

make the kind of grades you should?

If we are too busy to live as we should - - - let's watch out! Aren't we just too busy?

D. G.

Back 'Em Up

As all of us know, we have four societies on campus. These societies have sports activities almost every week. But, they do not always have people cheering for their teams.

Let's all "get behind" our societies and support our teams. After all, if we have no society spirit, there is no competition. If we have no competition, why have a society in the first place?

J. H.

FAILING?

"Oh, she won't fail you if you'll be nice to her." This statement was probably very familiar to you in high school. The subjects were easy and the teachers lenient.

It isn't the same in college although some think so. College life is not "one big ball". Good grades are not made without some effort.

The F's and D's which were given for the six weeks shouldn't be funny to anyone. They are not funny to our parents who are sacrificing to send us to school. Remember students, it is good to enjoy college life, but we are here for the main purpose of preparing ourselves for the future!

Homemakers Club Begins New Year

The HomeMakers Club, domestic and service organization of FHC, lists as officers this year Kay Sasser, president; Betty Fox, vice president; Margie McNew, secretary; and Barbara Williams, Treasurer.

To qualify as a member a student should be either a home economics major or be enrolled in one or more courses in the field of home economics. Each member must be willing to share the many responsibilities and duties placed upon the club.

During the course of the year the Homemakers Club will serve at banquets, receptions and informal gatherings. Members will attend the annual meeting of the Tennessee Home Economics Association. Their sponsor is Miss Reba Tucker, head of the Home Economics Department.

Off Beat...

Wanda Miller could relate a very funny story of Halloween if you cornered her. The main points of the story include a rainy night, one umbrella, a group of young boys with fire-crackers, and two terrified girls. It seems one of them used the umbrella as defense—or should I say offense?

Sudden change of name . . . Stanley Reel's fleabitten playmate has recently changed her name from "Alice" to "Alma". No offense. We all approve of the substitute.

Say, Phil, we're not trying to be nosey, but we just "wanna" know who told you that there are only three in a trio and four in a quartet?

Did you know that our own W. C. Hall had the audacity to indulge in a soft drink at the F.B.L.A. What is this world coming to?

Famous motto for two self-conscious girls: Today we eat, tomorrow we die----t!!

Anyone interested in a fast game of leap frog please report to the girls in the halls of Rolland-Hall Dormitory between 9:00 and 10:00 at night.

"Mother Hubbard" and "Father Simms", or was it "Father Hubbard" and "Mother Simms"? Oh well, it doesn't make any difference really. It was all make believe. You see, in a health class Zickefoose needed a mother and father to illustrate the principles of heredity.

Some students skip class, but Van Dyke????.....

Oh, never!!! And when a test was scheduled???? Impossible!! It's just that no one in the cafeteria could understand why his Critical Introduction to the Old Testament Class filed into the cafeteria, gathered around him, and stood there staring at him with huge smiles on their faces.

I'm sure Harry Campbell would love to tell you all about his new additions to his family. Namely twenty-four pigs.

How about Hibbett saying, "I will give someone a hundred dollars to speak for me in chapel!" Of all things!

Absent-mindedness? The other day, James Frazier was half way home from the College when he suddenly turned around and walked back. His reason for this odd behavior was the fact that he had driven to school that morning and had to go back for his car.

Say Walter, isn't Dot's cooking any good? We heard you got sick after eating the first home-cooked meal that she fixed for you.

Dot's Jots

J. E.

Didja ever wonder what other students write home about? The following is a splendid example! (Don't worry Glenda, I won't tell who wrote it)

"Some people around here are having a rip snorting time tonight—but not me. Who wants to go to a Halloween Party, shoot fire-crackers and eat apples when they can stay at home and ride their own broom? . . . I'm behind in all my studies, dirty clothes are stuffed in every corner, and I caught my death of cold. I can't smell, can't sleep, can't eat, can't talk, in fact, I've never had it so bad."

Bet You Didn't Realize - - -

by Fran and Bev

Students, who is your best friend on this campus? No, it isn't your roommate or the person next door. Guess again! It is the LIBRARY, of course. Had you really stopped to consider it?

It is for our benefit that our librarian, Miss Rainey, opens the library every morning at 8:00, keeps it open every hour during the day, and then opens it again at night. Most of us cannot study with all the noise in the dorm and the only quiet place to be found is the library. It is there that we do our outside reading, work on term papers, and read our magazines. We use the library for pleasure as well as for work.

Become acquainted with the library, and I am sure you will find it very profitable to visit. Let's all say thank you to Rainey and Mrs. Van Dyke for keeping the library quiet for us and for being willing to help us as much as they possibly can.

Mr. Ingrate

by John Harris

The Self-Made Man Talks About Thankfulness

"Why should I stoop to thank my 'Old Man' for the clothes that I'm wearing? He owes them to me."

"Grateful for this school? I should say not! You ought to see State back home. Nobody has done me a favor! I'm doing the college a favor by coming here!"

"Grateful for a free country? Man, don't you know everybody can do as he pleases."

"Thankful to God for these 'beans and taters'? What's wrong with you? God didn't farm that back forty; my old man did."

If such even hints of our thinking, let's crawl back into some hole and hope the light of wisdom won't find us.

Our Necessities

In answer to the first expression, parents certainly owe children the necessities, but really aren't our clothes more than is absolutely necessary?

Our Education

Then the second statement shows a mind that can't see anything but the physical in his environment including education. Not only does he measure the school by its building, but he fails to understand the difficulty of privately supporting a school dedicated to that which the world despises.

Our Freedom

The person that refers to himself as a Christian but fails to be thankful for our rare, blood-bought freedom deserves neither the name Christian nor the honor of manhood. Why? Because his heart and soul are so small he can't realize the greatness of the Henrys, the Washingtons, and the Jeffersons of our heritage.

Our Ingratitude

We may not express our ingratitude as openly as the "self-made man" when he talked about the back forty. But do you suppose we might, when we say "Amen" to a prayer in the cafeteria and immediately begin to gripe about what we have supposedly thanked God for? The ingrate that fails to see his blessings as the gift of God is a detriment to our school.

"Know ye that Jehovah, he is God:

It is he that hath made us and we are his;

We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture."

Psalms 100:3.

NEWS BRIEFS:

Mrs. Harold Humphries, the former Sue Fritz of Cadiz, Kentucky and a 1957 graduate of FHC, passed away in connection with child-birth October 28.

"The Book of Books" is the theme of the Freed-Hardeman College lectureship program to be held January 4 through 8.

Freed-Hardeman College will be eligible to receive Federal assistance in the creation of a National Defense

Student Loan Fund on its campus.

Jo Ann Hodges, a 1958 graduate of FHC and former editor of the Sky Rocket and Jerry McKinney, also a former student, were married in Memphis, Tennessee October 24.

The Minstrel sponsored each year by the Treasure Chest will be January 29, 1959. Jerry Counce is the author and the setting is a dock scene.

Say Students remember — let's all help the Lions to lick Lipscomb! The vacation period will be wonderful—so let's show appreciation by cooperating—attend the Homecoming ball game 100%!!

Dean Is Added To Staffs Of Publications

Three editors of religious publications have named E. Claude Gardner, Dean-Registrar of Freed-Hardeman College, Henderson, Tennessee, as a staff writer. B. C. Goodpasture, editor of the Gospel Advocate, Nashville, Tennessee, announced in the October 2 issue that Dean Gardner has been added as a staff writer of the Gospel Advocate.

He was also asked to serve on the staff of Minister's Monthly, edited by Frank L. Cox of Tyler, Texas.

M. Norvel Young, editor of the Power for Today, has named him to serve as a member of the editorial staff of this publication.

Dean Gardner is also staff writer for the Voice of Freedom and a member of the Advisory Board of the Christian Family Book Club.

Preachers Club To Meet On Mondays;

John Harris and Dan Jenkins are president and vice-president, respectively, of the FHC preachers club. The club meets every Monday night at 7:00.

After a short devotion four or five preachers deliver brief sermons. Following the sermons, W. C. Hall makes criticism on the contents and grammar of the sermons.

Those who are preparing to preach are urged to attend all the meetings.

Pentington Films Chapel Program

On November 20 and 21, 1958, the Pentington Studio of San Anito, Texas, will make a film of FHC's chapel program.

This film will be shown on the Herald of Truth Telecast that appears over the United States. President Dixon will be the speaker.

THEY'VE LINED UP TOGETHER TO CHEER US ON! The '58-'59 cheerleaders have chosen Jerry Senn as captain. There are only two returning cheerleaders, Jerry Senn and Mark Hicks. Those who were recently elected are Judy Bulliner, Leona Lawrence, Phyllis O'Kelley, Carol Willis, Linda Carr and Janice Kay Rush, alternate.

I Live Here!

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to be a town student? Have you ever thought for just one day you would like to be at home and still go to college. Of course, every story has two sides and this one has the good and the bad.

How about that?

Let's see, who can you swap places with??? How about Judy Bulliner? Judy lives approximately four miles from town and has to drive in every morning. Well one particular morning, she slept to the latest possible minute, jumped out of bed, dressed and made a mad dash for the car only to discover that her daddy had taken the keys with him!! What a panic! By the way Judy is thinking about moving into the dorm! Or what about Wade Phillips? Wade lives out from town also. One morning much to his surprise he awoke at 8:30—Class started at 8:00! Oh well, one more hour of sleep! How would you like to be Tommy Davis? After a blissful night of sleep, Tommy ran out of the house at 7:25, jumped into the car on his way to pick Fran up at 7:30—there was only one thing wrong, the car wouldn't start! Walking is good exercise so they say!

Mom and Dad

Of course, we have many advantages which the boarding students do not have. The main one is living at home with father and mother. We are acquainted with the town and we can go home any time. A disadvantage is that we can't be with our fellow students as much as we would like. But it's loads of fun anyway.

Club Corner

FBLA

The first night meeting of the FBLA was held October 27. The guest speaker, H. A. Dixon, spoke on "The Importance of Preparation."

The officers for the year are: Charles Westbrook, president; Bob Moore, vice-president; Bobbie Hoke, secretary; Carolyn Lemmons, treasurer; Patricia Naylor, reporter.

The members are selling candy in the dorms for their money-raising project.

MUSIC

Each student who is enrolled in two or more music classes is eligible to become a member of the Music Club.

The officers for this year are: president, Jerry Counce; vice-president, Jan McBride; and secretary, Joy Simon.

SCIENCE

The Science Club plans to view the constellations and the moon in the near future. They have ordered four films: "Dupont Story", "This is Chemistry", "Fossils", and "Dynamic Measurement".

The Science Club officers for the fall quarter are: president, Eugene Haslett; vice-president, Dave Rosson, and secretary, Sidney Wade. Sponsors are: Gene Hibbett, Howard Trull and Robert Atnip.

FHC'ers PREPARE FOR VICTORY OVER BISONS

Lion Cagers Go Up Against Bethel Squad Tonight

by Jimmy Yeomans

Tonight we will be able to see the power of the Lions in action in their first game of the regular season. They are host to Bethel College, which always has a strong team.

Seeking Revenge

One of the highlights of the season will be the traditional homecoming game against David Lipscomb, November 27. The boys will be seeking revenge for the game of last year in which they were squeezed out by two points. It is always a hard fight for the game and this year we are expecting no difference, except possibly a reversal in the score.

14 Suits

On November 6, the issuing of 14 suits climaxed the training of several months. The 14 recipients of the uniforms were: Pete Beecham, Charles Dowdy, Robert Fields, Rodger Hubbert, Jerry Billingsley, Bobby Hauser, Buddy May, Dan Henry, Sam Fisher, Jackie Bradford, Karl Johnson, Ed Nulter, Gene Hendon and Harold Neal.

The all-stars "huddle" around a chalk drawing as they plan game strategy. They will play the faculty on homecoming day.

Chosen All Stars Are Now Listed

The display of gridiron talent was great this year. The all star team, which was chosen by the sports captains and the team captains of all the societies, is made up of the most outstanding players from all of the societies. The boys were evenly distributed among the four societies, with the Alpha Taus furnishing four, the Sigma Rhos three, the Phi Kappas three and the Philos three. The team is pictured above.

The individual players from the different societies are: Alpha Taus: Jerry Gordon, end, John Hamrick, half-back, Elmer Sharp, guard, and Bob Moore, center. Sigma Rhos: Tom Dozier, end, Jay Lockhart, quarter-back, and Jim Palmer, line-backer. Phi Kappas: John Harris, blocking back, J. L. Pate, guard and Charles Brammer, end. Philos: Jere McWinn, half-back, Dave Miller, half-back and Gere Hackett, line-backer.

PHILOS TOPS IN TOURNEY

The Philo Society topped all others in the speech tournament with 555 points. The Phi Kappas finished second with 295, Sigma Rhos third with 155 and Alpha Taus fourth with 115. The individual winners were: John Paul Simon, first; Dot Greer, second and Austin Emery, third.

The most important game for the all stars will come during the week of homecoming when they play the champions of regular season, the Philos.

Griffin Team To Tumble Thanksgiving

The FHC Griffins, a 13 member tumbling team, are ready to "show their stuff"! They have been practicing every Monday and Thursday night in order to be ready for their show. Their season starts off with an exhibition at the homecoming basketball game November 27.

Members of the Griffins are: Ron Potts, Don Potts, Willard Stenson, David Miller, Jerry Hackett, Larry Braynit, Larry Carden, Harry Carden, Douglas Showalter, Jerry Cheatem, Harold Sublett, Larry Davis and Harold Neal.

This "n" That

HEY! HE! HI! HO
Come on Gang —
Let's Go!

Do you have a headache? Stay home tonight. Don't go to the ball game. Going to the ball game would make it worse. But if you are just generally in the dumps, just try one! You will feel better fast!

Everybody will get excited. Everybody will yell as Chuck goes in for a rebound, or as Rodger and Pete show splendid co-operation in passing that ball around.

Make that point! Off it starts. The gym will be filled with the "music" of the pop band. You can "sound off" to support the team.

To have a really wonderful time, just try a ball game for your prescription. You may catch the ball game fever and join the crowd that follows the Lions to every game. It will certainly be worth it because the Lions are vicious!

Ball game manners . . .

Are you . . .

- A team supporter?
- A temper keeper?
- A steady yell?
- A good sport?
- A good loser?
- A Lion backer?

On The Sidelines

Intramural activity now has a permanent place in the "extra" time of many students. The organized activity provides an outlet for society spirit, and a "stage" for comical as well as star performances. During the Philo (12), Faculty (7) football game there were performances that only you can classify.

How would you classify this play? . . . Professor Phil Evan-son caught the pigskin on the faculty forty yard line on a kick off. He stood gracefully on the field, cuddled the little brown ball in his arms, and dramatically uttered, "I caught it."

For the past two weeks the societies have been having some dandy volleyball games. The Phi Kappas were really whopping that ball those first two games. Jim (Star) Gurganus put on several performances during the games. While playing center on the front row he would return the ball with a one-hand back sideways kill.

During the girls volley ball games a number of incidents occurred. Carol Warren and Trish Naylor, along with a few dozen more, couldn't always control their muscles, so they almost knocked the roof off the gym with "wild" volley balls. And a few people whom I know had to make hasty exits because of "excessive strain" on the seams of their clothing.

Badminton singles start today for girls and Wednesday for the boys. Basketball for both boys and girls begins November 24.
